An Angel in Your Pocket

I am a tiny Angel...

I'm smaller than your thumb;

I live in people's pockets,

That's where I have my fun.

I don't suppose you've seen me,

I'm too tiny to detect;

Though I'm with you all the time,

I doubt we've ever met.

Before I was an Angel...

I was a fairy in a flower;

God, Himself, hand-picked me,

And gave me Angel power.

Now God has many Angels

That He trains in Angel pools;

We become His eyes, ears and hands...

We become His special tools.

And because God is so busy,

With way too much to do;

He said that my assignment

Is to keep close watch on you.

When he tucked me in your pocket,

He blessed you with Angel care;

Then told me never to leave you,

And I vowed always to be there.

In Loving Memory of Catherine Trueman
 August 16, 1952—July 22, 2023

Catherine Trueman was born at The Pas Hospital on Saturday, August 16th, 1952.

Catherine and her late brother Paul attended the Carrot River Day School and The Pas Indian Day School. After a few years there, she attended the Old Red Brick (Mary Duncan), Kelsey School, and MBCI. Mom left her formal education at grade 9.

Catherine was very independent! Her first job was babysitting for her sister Mischip (Marian). On weekends, mom sought out another job to earn extra money, at the Big Eddy Store (out on the highway). Mom was a cashier, she stocked the shelves, pumped gas and made sure the store was clean. She did it all!

As time went on, mom eventually took a full time job during the week. She worked for Gary Morrish at The Jones's Groceries and in the basement (The Grub Box). She also had a job at The Met.

Catherine eventually went back to school and obtained her Health Care Aid certificate, and took many jobs as a cleaner.

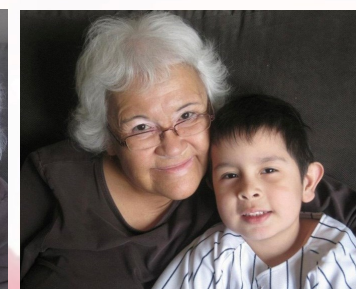

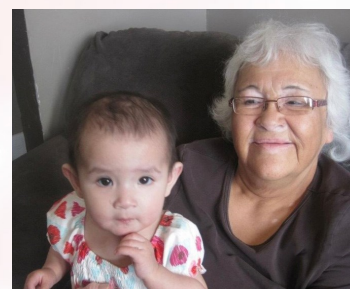

Catherine was united in marriage to Terry Trueman on November 15th, 1980. Catherine's most rewarding job however was when she stayed home to raise her five children.

In these years, she operated her own store in Big Eddy alongside her late husband Terry. In 1996, they opened a restaurant called the Pizza House.

Catherine has always had a strong belief in God. This brought her comfort and peace all throughout her life. She found peace in gospel music and often played it everywhere she went. Her love and belief in God was instilled in her children.

Mom traveled across Canada from the west to the east coast. Catherine was able to accompany her daughters on many holiday trips as well. They took her to many places in the States. She was able to see Crazy Horse, Mount Rushmore, Las Vegas, Hoover Dam, to the Grand Canyon Skywalk, Graceland in Memphis, Loretta Lynn's Ranch, Nashville to see the Grand Ole Opry, St. Louis the famous Arch. Chicago to see the famous Bean. Mom was able to see Crow Agency Montana to see the Battlefield of the Little Big Horn. Fort Pierre, South Dakota to take in the Indian Horse Relay Races. Mom also went to Chamberlain, South Dakota to see the Dignity of Earth and Sky monument. When mom wasn't traveling during the summer, she would pick up her brother and sister and bring them to Pioneer Bay where her daughter would be camping.

Catherine leaves to mourn her children Walter, Teresa (Larry), Barry (Kathy), Flora (Jason), Catherine (Preston); grandchildren Blaine, Zoey, Barry Jr, Jonson, Brody, Harley, and Aubrey; brothers Horace and Louis; In-laws Irene Personius, Ruth McDonald, Rose Personius, Pauline Personius, Edward Prince, William G Lathlin, Paula Alcott, Beverley Knapp (Dennis), and Barbara Trueman.

Catherine was predeceased by her husband Terry Trueman; parents Louis G. (Patrick) and Betsy Personius; mother and father-in-law Florence Machado, Walter Trueman; brothers Paul Personius, Patrick Personius; sisters Marian Prince, Myra Lathlin, Eileen Personius, Lillian (Sidney) Bignell; In-Laws Marie Personius, Nelson (Mac) McDonald; Grandsons Colby Hunter Gaywish, Terry Wagner Trueman; Along with numerous relatives and extended family.
