Expressions of Gratitude

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to all of you here today. There is nothing more gratifying than to have loving people respond, with hearts and hands, in one's hour of need. You have lifted our spirits with your prayers, flowers, visits, calls, and gifts of love; we are truly grateful. The only thing greater than your kindness is the love of God that inspired it. Please continue to keep us in your prayers, asking God to hold us together as one. Thank you for your friendship and love.

WHEN SOMEONE YOU LOVE BECOMES A MEMORY, THE MEMORY BECOMES A TREASURE™

In Loving Memory of our Beautiful Mother

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be so He put His arms around you and whispered, "Come to Me."

With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away
and although we love you dearly
we could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

Life doesn't seem the same since you have gone away.

When days are sad and lonely
and everything goes wrong,
we seem to hear you whisper
"Cheer Up and Carry On"

Each time we see your picture
you seem smile and say,
"Don't cry, Im in God's hands,
we'll meet again someday!"

Precious Memories

God's Garden

God looked around his Garden
and found an empty place.
He then looked down upon his earth and saw your loving face.

He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.

His Garden must be beautiful,
he always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,
he knew you were in pain.

And knew that you would never get well on earth again.

He saw your path was difficult,
he closed your tired eyes,

He whispered to you "Peace be Thine" and gave you wings to fly.

When we saw you sleeping so calm and free of pain,

We would not wish you back to earth to suffer once again.

You've left us precious memories,
your love will be our guide,

You live on through your children,
you're always by our side.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you did not go alone.

For part of us went with you on the day God called you home.

LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Cheryl Leann (Clark) Nevins

Cheryl Leann (Clark) Nevins, a cherished soul, was born on May 13, 1953, in the vibrant city of Denver, Colorado. As the second child of Elsie Chandler and Donald E. Clark, she was nurtured by the love of her mother and PawDad William Chandler. Cheryl was blessed with three siblings: Donna, Myron, and Marilyn, each sharing in the beautiful tapestry of her life.

A proud Denverite, Cheryl's journey began at Manual High School before she embarked on a remarkable 35-year career at Safeway. Throughout her time there, she radiated joy with her warm smile and striking presence—her height and long nails became part of her unforgettable charm. She embraced her role as a mentor, lovingly nurturing many young men and women who crossed her path.

Cheryl's greatest joys came from her two beloved daughters, Aris Jackson and LaKiya Nevins, both of whom carry her spirit forward. As a grandmother, she thrived, showering her grandchildren—Marcus Nevins, Ta'Nisha, Arie and Sadaya Gosha, and Mark Jackson — along with her great-granddaughter, Mar'shaia Nevins, with endless love and support.

An adventurous soul, Cheryl found pleasure in life's simple joys, whether it was piecing together intricate 2000-piece puzzles, engaging in strategic games of chess, or sharing enthusiastic rounds of pinochle and "Words with Friends." More than anything, she deeply valued the time spent with her family, whom she cherished above all. She also loved to play the lottery.

Though faced with challenges toward the end of her journey, she turned to her unwavering faith in Jesus, finding strength and comfort through her love of the Lord. Raised in the church, she held steadfast to her beliefs, embodying grace and resilience that inspired those around her. Cheryl's life was a testament to the power of faith, and she remained a beacon of hope long after circumstances seemed dire.

Cheryl Leann Nevins leaves a sparkling legacy of love, laughter, and faith that will forever resonate in the hearts of those who had the privilege to know her. Her beautiful spirit will continue to shine brightly in the lives she touched, serving as a reminder of the enduring power of love and kindness.

On December 3, 2024, Cheryl was embraced in the loving arms of Jesus, leaving behind a legacy rich in love and memories. She is lovingly remembered by her daughters, Aris and LaKiya; her sister, Donna; brother, Myron; her grandchildren; lifelong friend, Judy Tarver; and countless friends and family who were touched by her kindness.
