Daddy's Little Girl

I will never forget how much you taught me about animals, gardening, and sports, although I couldn't throw very good, and loving me unconditionally and being so patient and kind. You are the best man I have ever known, showing me what love is supposed to look like. The way you treated everyone you encountered taught me how to treat others—with kindness, patience, and love.

From His Daughter, Candise

A Final Tribute

To his beloved wife, Mary, Randy was not only her husband of 57 years, but her lifelong companion, the love of her life, and the man with whom she built a beautiful family and shared a lifetime of memories. To his children, Randy Jr. and Candise, he was more than a father—he was their protector, teacher, supporter, and a constant presence in their lives. Randy's love for his family was woven into everything he did. His kindness, gentle spirit, laughter, and unconditional love will forever live on in the hearts of those who knew him.

Though his voice may be quiet now, the love he gave, the lessons he taught, and the memories he created will remain with his family forever. Randy was deeply loved, will be profoundly missed, and will never be forgotten. Fly High dunking that basketball with the angels.

To My Husband

To my husband a very special person not just because he was tall and good looking and extremely intelligent but what he presented to this world. To know him was to love him. The first time I met Randy I knew he was special. He had a way about him that only he possessed that will live on in my heart, body and soul forever. Goodbye my love until I see you again I know you'll be waiting for me like always.

From His Wife, Mary

To My Dad

Dad, I will miss your voice, your laughter, your stories, and all those conversations about sports. Most of all, I will miss simply having you here.

Thank you for being my dad. I love you, and I will carry you with me always.

From His Son, Randy Jr.

HIS STORY

Randy Petit, beloved husband, father, veteran, friend, and sports enthusiast, was born May 3, 1947 in Okmulgee, OK. He was a kind and loving man who never met a stranger and whose warmth, intelligence, humor and generous spirit and laughter touched the lives of many.

Randy was raised in Okmulgee, OK attended Douglas Elementary School, Preston High School, and Wagoner High School. He continued his education at Eastern Oklahoma Junior College, where he met the love of his life, Mary. He also attended Langston University and later attended Northeastern State University, where he earned his bachelor's degree. Randy was a standout basketball player, known as a talented guard who could play above the rim. His college years were an important part of his life, both academically and athletically, and they were also where he met Mary, the woman who would become his wife and lifelong companion.

Randy and Mary shared 57 years of marriage, building a life together and raising their two children, Randy Petit Jr. and Candise Petit. Randy was a dedicated husband and father who took great pride in his family.

Randy was also a proud veteran who served in the United States Army in 1970, attaining the rank of SP4.

Throughout his life, Randy had a deep love for sports. From baseball to football, he could talk about sports for hours and was known throughout the family as the family sports expert. His passion for sports was something he enjoyed sharing with others and remained an important part of who he was.

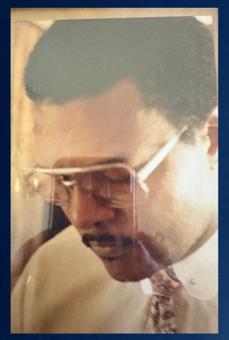

Randy also had a special love for animals. He could never resist the many animals that found their way into the family home, especially his beloved dogs, Casey and Nala. His gentle heart made it difficult for him not to love every animal that crossed his path.

Professionally, Randy dedicated many years of his career to Tulsa Job Corps, where he served as the Chief Executive Officer (CEO). He later worked for several years at the Tulsa Housing Authority.

Randy was preceded in death by his parents, Vivian Minter-Petit and Ferman Petit Sr., and his siblings, Ferman Petit Jr., Margaret Garner, Florence Fox and Eddie Faye Gates.

Randy leaves to cherish his memory his beloved wife of 57 years, Mary Petit; his son, Randy Petit Jr.; his daughter, Candise Petit; his sister, Frances Peterson; his brothers, Troy Petit Sr. and Terry Petit (Gloria); along with extended family, friends, and all those whose lives he touched.
