

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Obituary

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Pamela Teri Boyd, who departed this life on February 5, 2025. Born on June 2, 1950, in Cincinnati, Ohio, Pamela was the cherished daughter of the late Lester Paul and Lesteria (Terry) Johnson. She was one of six children in her family.

Pamela's early education was rooted in Cincinnati's West End, where she attended St. Henry and St. Joseph's elementary schools. She continued her studies at Seton Catholic High School in Price Hill and later graduated from Robert A. Taft High School, earning recognition for her academic excellence.

Her professional journey began as a secretary at Procter & Gamble. Driven by a passion for communication sciences and technology, Pamela transitioned to a role as a communications technician with AT&T, dedicating ten years to the company. Her enthusiasm for technology led her to pursue a master's degree in Information Technology, further enhancing her expertise in the field.

Beyond her professional achievements, Pamela held a deep interest in her family's history. She diligently uncovered and cherished the rich heritage of her Eaves-Johnson ancestors, proudly sharing this legacy with others.

Pamela is survived by her five children: Micheal Pressley, Michelle (Kevin) Johnson, and Brandon Darius Johnson, all of Cincinnati, Ohio; Randy (Sara) Lewis Jr. of Boston, Massachusetts; and Charla (Yohaunce) Johnson of Fort Washington, Maryland; as well as her bonus daughter, Shontae Dunbar. She is also survived by her three sisters: Iva Brooks, Cynthia Pressley-DeMar, and Teresa Pressley; two brothers: Gregory Pressley and Charles Pressley; and eleven grandchildren: Taryn, Jalen, Cameron, Randy, Janae, Jade, Je Air, Cyraq, London, and Laiyah. She was preceded in death by her granddaughter, Mareisha. Additionally, Pamela leaves behind eight great-grandchildren: Brian, Bramel, Bryshon, Nori, Amir, Alana, Aiden, and Navy; along with numerous cousins, nieces, nephews, extended family, lifelong friends, and neighbors, all of whom will remember her fondly.

Pamela's loving and kind spirit will be deeply missed. She was known for her lively, intelligent conversations and for sharing profound wisdom on life and living. As a beacon of light to many, Pamela leaves behind a lasting legacy of love, knowledge, and inspiration.
