

ISAAC SR. Jackson

Obituary

On Wednesday, December 17, 2025, Mr. Isaac Jackson Sr. had to yield to his Master's call. He spent his final hours surrounded by his loving family, whom he loved more than life.

Today we pause to pay honor and tribute to a loving husband, father, brother, grandfather, uncle and friend to so many. Mr. Isaac Jackson Sr. was born June 23, 1952 in Lee County to the late Ms. Essie Mae Moses and Mr. James Jackson. He grew up in Lee County and attended Bishopville High School. He was united in marriage to the late Mrs. Janie Mae Jackson whom he was married to for more than forty-nine years. With a lot of love, they created four children. Mr. Jackson was a hardworking man who loved his family. He had a special bond with his grandkids. He loved fishing and his Green Bay Packers. He could walk in a room and leave an impression that could last lifetime. He had a genuine love for his sisters, nieces, nephews, and friends that made family along the way.

He leaves to mourn him in passing, two daughters, Yolanda D. Jackson and Yvetta Jackson of Bishopville, South Carolina; two sons, Teddy Jackson of the home and Ivan Mickens of Decatur, Georgia; five sisters, Annie Pearl Jackson of Sumter, South Carolina, Rebecca King of Florence, South Carolina, Mary Ann Muldrow of Sumter, South Carolina, Yvonne Moses of Columbia, South Carolina and Elaine Dukes of Bishopville, South Carolina; nine grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his loving wife, Mrs. Janie M. Jackson; his son, Mr. Isaac Jackson Jr.; his parents, Mr. James Jackson and Mrs. Essie Mae Moses; two brothers, Mr. Silas Jackson and Mr. Dean Boyd.

Nephews and Friend

He was our heart. He was funny, outspoken and always willing to help, but most of all, he loved us fiercely. He had a special way of forming an individual bond with each of us, making every grandchild feel deeply known and endlessly loved. His laughter, his honesty and the way he showed up for us will forever live in our hearts. He meant more to us than words can ever explain and the love he poured into us will continue to guide us for the rest of our lives.

Nieces and Friends

Dad, we still feel your absence like a quiet ache that never leaves. But today, we won't cry for what's lost. Instead we'll send a wish to heaven that you're smiling, free of pain, and watching over us with pride. You were our hero on earth, and now I hope you're wearing your wings, flying high among the stars.

We imagine you laughing, dancing in gold lights, and resting in a peace you've always deserved. The love you gave us still warms our hearts, and every time we look up at the sky, we will whisper, "Be Happy Daddy. Be the angel you were always meant to be." You're not just a memory, you're our guardian... Now,

Forever and Always!
