Safely Home

I am home in heaven, dear ones; oh, so happy and so bright!

There is a perfect joy and beauty in the everlasting light.

All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed;

I am now at peace forever, safely home in heaven at last.

There is work still waiting for you, so you must not idly stand, do it now, while life remaineth – you shall rest in God's own land.

When that work is all completed, He will gently call you home;

oh, the rapture of that meeting oh, the joy to see you come!

Acknowledgements

Obituary

Janie Elizabeth Jones, born July 18, 1932, in Athens, GA, to the late Nora Charles and Hattie Mae Badger, peacefully departed this earthly life on March 15, 2025.

Janie was a devoted member of First AME Church, where she joined as a youth alongside her mother and grandmother. Throughout her years, she actively served as a member of the CD Wilkerson Choir, the Gospel Choir and served on the Stewardess Board Number One, at First AME Church. Her faith and commitment to her church were central to her life.

As a homemaker, Janie dedicated herself to her family, offering love, guidance, and support. She was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend who always put the needs of others first. Her warm heart and encouraging spirit were felt by all who knew her, and she was a constant source of strength and comfort to those closest to her.

In her spare time, Janie enjoyed having yard sales, spending time at the J & J Center, and sharing her knowledge and passion with everyone she met. Her enthusiasm for life and her generosity made a lasting impact on everyone.

Preceding her in death were her mother Hattie Mae Badger, her father Nora Charles, and her 4 children, Jeanette Deadwyler, Bobbie Goolsby, Robert Allen, and Shanda Deadwyler.

Janie is survived by her loving husband James Jones, 10 grandchildren, many great-grandchildren, and a host of cousins and friends. Her memory will be cherished by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

She will be deeply missed, but her legacy of love, faith, and kindness will live on in the hearts of all those who were touched by her presence.
