

God's Garden

God looked around his garden and found an empty place
He then looked down upon the Earth and saw your tired face
He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest
With the help of his angels they flew you to your heavenly place.
God's garden must be beautiful,
he always takes the best He knew you were suffering,
he knew you were in pain
He knew that you would never get well on Earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough and the hills too hard to climb He closed your weary eyelids and whispered "Peace be Thine"
It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you the day God called you home.

Obituary

Lynette Rose Olds, 74 of Lakewood, NJ passed away on Wednesday, November 3, 2021, at Monmouth Medical Center Southern Campus, Lakewood, NJ. She was born on March 7, 1947 to Anna and William Johnson.

Lynette attended Lakewood High School and worked for a number of companies until she was hired by Nabisco in 1972. At Nabisco she was promoted to a variety of responsible positions over the next 30 years until she retired.

Nette, as she was affectionately known, met and married Bernard Brown. Through this union they had Lucretia “Bug”, Nettes only child.

Nette was an avid sports fan. Her favorite sports to watch were tennis, football, and basketball. She loved to watch Michael Jordan and the Bulls. She rarely missed watching the Williams sisters play tennis.

Nette also loved to travel and visited many countries throughout Europe. Perhaps her greatest passion was being present for anyone who needed her. Family, friends, and acquaintances found comfort in the gifts of her heart.

Nette was predeceased by her mother, Anna Yates, father, William Johnson, daughter, Lucretia Brown, brother, Joseph Woolfolk, and sister, Cindy Woolfolk.

She is survived by her brother, Major Finklin, Jr. of Toms River, NJ; sisters, Gwendolyn Brown of Lakewood, NJ, Renie Wright of Manahawkin, NJ, Eyvonne Klink of Tampa, FL, Michelle Finklin of Conyers, GA, Josette Woolfolk of West Palm Beach, FL, and Duwana Johnson of Newark, NJ, grandson, Byron Watson of Philadelphia, PA, and a host of relatives and friends.
