

Don't Cry For Me

Don't cry for me. I will be okay.

Heaven is my home now,
and this is where I'll stay.

Don't cry for me. I'm where I belong.

I want you to be happy and try to stay strong.

Don't cry for me.

It was just my time, but I will see you someday on the other side.

Don't cry for me.

I am not alone.

The angels are with me to welcome me home.

Don't cry for me, for I have no fear.

All my pain is gone, and Jesus took my tears.

Don't cry for me.

This is not the end.

I'll be waiting here for you

when we meet again.

Obituary

Courtney Todd was born on April 23, 1982, as a triplet to Karen Todd and the late William Craig. She was the youngest of a beautiful set of triplets and brought light and love into the lives of those around her from the very beginning.

Courtney attended Porter Junior High School, where she began working at just 13 years old through the Earn and Learn Program, demonstrating early on her strong work ethic and determination. She later attended Robert A. Taft High School and began her career in food service at McDonald's, where she developed valuable skills and a passion for serving others. A few years later, she joined Wendy's, where she dedicated herself wholeheartedly, eventually advancing into management. She remained a committed and hardworking leader until her passing.

Above all, Courtney was a devoted mother. She worked tirelessly to provide a loving and comfortable life for her children, carrying herself with strength, resilience, and grace. Her dedication to her family was the center of her world, and she took great pride in being a strong and compassionate Black woman who always put her family first.

Courtney peacefully departed this life on January 25, 2026, at 10:34 a.m. Courtney leaves to cherish her memory her seven beloved children: Kaylyn Todd, Mikal Todd, Malaysia Brown, Makhia Brown, Michael David Brown III, Micah Brown, and Myliyah Brown. She leaves to honor her memory her spouse, Michael Brown II. She is also lovingly remembered by her three grandchildren: Mi'san Todd, Taihir Wilkerson, and Azura Baker.

She also leaves behind her mother, Karen Todd; six brothers and two sisters, Karim Todd Sr., Craig Todd Sr., Chemere Todd, Turrell Todd, Reginald Pittman Jr., Ian Palmer, Stephen Walton, and Brittany Walton; along with a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, and dear friends who will forever hold her memory close to their hearts.

Courtney's strength, warmth, and unwavering love will never be forgotten. Her legacy lives on through her children, grandchildren, and all who were blessed to know her.

In loving reflection, we are comforted by the words of Scripture: Mark 5:34

"He said to her, 'Daughter, your faith has healed you. Go in peace and be freed from your suffering.'"
