Poems To Mom

Home isn't where you're from.
It's where you find the Light when all goes Dark.

I still hear you in simple things.
In moments Warm and Bright.
Not Gone, just out of Reach.
Still with me every Day and Night.

Closing Prayer Minidi Dixon

My Mom was more than a mom to me. She was a Best Friend which I would have had for life. My heart aches from the words I never got to say, but she is free of her pain. She was loved by everyone, and she was a wonderful human. She loved to talk and do crafts. I wish I would have done more with her. I would have had I realized how limited our time really was. But she knows that I will always love her forever. Anytime I see the sun, I'll see her shining her rays on me. When I see the stars, I'll know she is the brightest one I see. She will be missed, but never forgotten. Love gube.
