IN LOVING Memory

Charline
BOYD-ANDREWS
“Tootsie”

Forever In Our Hearts

Charline's Journey

Charline Boyd-Andrews, was born on June 17, 1945, to David and Jessie Boyd, Beggs, Oklahoma. She was the 5th of 11 children. Nicknamed by her late grandmother, Charline was affectionately known in the family as “Tootsie”. After moving from Beggs, OK to Tulsa OK , Charline attended Tulsa Public Schools: Dunbar Elementary, Carver Jr. High, and Booker T. Washington High School graduating with the Class of 1964.

Charline accepted Christ at an early age. She was a devoted member of the Metropolitan Baptist Church (The Met), under the leadership of Pastor Dr. Ray Owens. At the “Met “she proudly served on the Usher Board and was also a member of the Metropolitan Mission Ministry. Her commitment and dedication to these roles and responsibilities at the church was unwavering until her health began to fail. Charline was a true believer in the word of Jesus Christ, and maintained a deep, personal relationship with the Lord throughout her entire life.

Charline’s professional journey was as varied and vibrant as her personality. Charline was employed as the first point of contact as a receptionist at KAKC, known as the legendary top AM radio station in Tulsa during the 1970’s. She was later employed as the receptionist at the Community Action Agency in Tulsa.

Beyond her spiritual and professional endeavors, Charline’s number one priority was her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren as well as her extended family. This was reflected in the many family gatherings, dinners and visits that she hosted at her home. She loved sewing, decorating and baking. In the family Tootsie was truly known for her number one passion “shopping”. She enjoyed shopping for herself, but her true joy was in shopping and giving to others. So, whether she was Mama Tootsie, Grandma Tootsie, Aunt Tootsie or just Tootsie, I’m sure we all have a “Tootsie shopping story” to share. Charline will be remembered as a portrait of grace and resilience. She met life’s joys and challenges with equal measures of elegance and strength; leaving an indelible mark on the hearts of those who knew her.

Charline was preceded in death by both parents, husbands, O.C Bowen and Lawrence (Buzzy) Andrews, son James Bowen, daughter Pamela Bowen and one grandchild, Brandi Bowen. She was also preceded in death by two sisters; Marcella Boyd (Cookie), Lois Barnes (Cheta), and four brothers; Carl, Luther, Andrew and Albert Edward Boyd. Charline’s life was a tapestry of love, woven with the threads of family and friendship.

She leaves to cherish her memory; sons, Michael Drew and Bryan Oates both of Tulsa, OK, grandchildren; Chantel Bowen of Newport News, VA, Sherrell Bowen, Michael Drew II, both of Tulsa OK, Jammie Bowen, Angela Bowen both of Minneapolis MN, Amber Brown, of Dallas TX, Desterin Oates, Daniel Jones, Osyris Oates, Malachi Oates, Isis Oates, and Anubis Oates all of Tulsa OK. great grandchildren, Timothy, Promise, Czarina, Lyric, Maddox, Daveyonna, Cornelius, Milan, Maurice, Marquise, Major, Marley, Ra’Shad, Mckenzie, Ruby, Amethyst, Ameer, Nyx, Erebus, Liliana, Elliana, Symphony, and Melody; 4 great great grandchildren, and brother, Herman (Gwen) Boyd Tulsa, OK, sisters; Mary Brown Omaha, NE, Theresa Fields, Tulsa, OK, Christine Boyd Omaha, NE, sister-in-law, Vylene Boyd Omaha, NE. Her life was further enriched by her stepchildren; Angela Coleman, Ladonna Andrews and Keith Andrews all of Wichita, KS; step grandchildren; Miresha Andrews and Donte Andrews both of Wichita, KS, step-great grandchildren; Rimir, David and Edrian; and a host of other relatives and friends.

For now, with heavy hearts, we bid farewell to our Queen/Diva Charline (Tootsie) Andrews.

Psalms 30:5
