Remembering Todd Jonathan White

Todd Jonathan White was born on June 8, 1983 in Livingston, NJ at Saint Barnabas Hospital.

He was a joyful, happy baby. Todd matured into a wonderful, caring man of much kindness, friendship and a quiet temperament, with the exception of football, a sport he loved dearly.

Living in Vauxhall, NJ, Todd attended the Union Board of Education School System from Elementary to High School. Todd was an exceptional football player with Union High School's Union Farmer Football team.

With a football scholarship upon graduation, he attended Bloomsburg University, located in Bloomsburg, PA. On December 13, 2008, he received his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration. He proudly sent copies of his degree to his mother, grandmother, uncles and aunts.

Todd lived in Bloomsburg, PA during his college years and chose to continue living in Bloomsburg after graduation. Upon his graduation, he began employment with Geisenger Medical Center in Danville, PA. After gaining experience and an excellent reputation as a member of Geisenger's Information Technology Team, he accepted employment with UPMC, located in Pittsburgh, PA, as a member of their Information Technology Team. Working as a System Analyst, he gained a reputation as an excellent team player who was a pleasure to work with. His camaraderie with his co-workers was well-received and respected.

With the birth of his daughter, Tiara Jade White, he began a life of loving detail and attention to all her desires, hopes and dreams. She was his heartbeat. Tiara's love for soccer and her growing into an excellent player was Todd's focus and he loved doing so.

Todd leaves to cherish his memory: daughter, Tiara Jade White, of Bloomsburg, PA; mother, Shefronica Gavin of Bushkill, PA; father, Jonathan White of Danville, VA; two brothers, John Gavin White of Newark, NJ and Christopher James White, of New York, NY; Aunt, Tara Gavin, of Union Township, NJ; Uncle, Sean (Lisa) Gavin of Concord, NC; Uncle, Terence (Stephanie) of North Plainfield, NJ; and a host of cousins, other family members and friends.
