

Jean E. London

January 16, 1937 – January 18, 2024

Obituary

Jean E. London of South Coatesville, PA, was called home to be with the Lord at her residence, surrounded by love, on Thursday, January 18, 2024.

She was born in Coatesville at the WC Atkinson Memorial Hospital on January 16, 1937, to the late Mayor James C. Kennedy, Sr. and Ernestine (High) Kennedy. She was affectionately known as Ms. Jean by many.

Jean loved the Lord with all her heart. She was a faithful member of the First Baptist Church of Benardtown. Her passion was singing in the church choir. If she had something special to do at church, nothing could stop her from being there, not even illness. She sang with the Wilson specials and served as a trustee, where she was a member her entire life.

Her hobbies were reading romance novels and the newspaper everyday. She loved doing the word unscramble. She would call and say look this up for me.

She was an avid TV watcher. She loved to shop and was a sharp dresser. Her favorite colors were black and white.

Jean loved laughter and would always say it was the best medicine.

She was a proud daughter, sister, mother, aunt, cousin and grandmother.

She is survived by her daughter, Jeannine McNeil (Ronald) of Coatesville; sons, William London (Jessica) of Coatesville, David London (Anjanette) of Raleigh, NC, Kevin London (Myra) of Coatesville, Scott London of Coatesville; one sister, Joan B. Hubert of Coatesville; one brother, Rev. James C. Kennedy, Jr. (Evelyn) of Coatesville; 20 grandchildren; 41 great-grandchildren; 7 great great grandchildren; special cousins, Claudette Marshall and Marjorie Thompson; 2 special friends, Martha Holmes and Gladys Legree and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by a great-granddaughter, Indya Monique London, and a great-grandson, Meikki.

Her memory will live on in the hearts of her extended family, church family, and a multitude of friends touched by her vibrant spirit.

Tribute to Mom

I thought of today but that is nothing new. I thought of you yesterday and days before that too. I think of you in silence I often speak your name. All I have are memories and your picture in a frame. Your memory is a keepsake from which I will never part. God has you in his arms but I have you in my ♥ Jeannine
