

Daniel Lloyd Putman, born on February 8, 1974, in Columbia, South Carolina, passed away on May 29, 2025, in Shawnee, Oklahoma. Daniel graduated from high school in Moore, Oklahoma, and pursued further education at OKC Platt College, focusing on criminal justice training for security work. Yet, it was in woodworking that he found his true passion. With a heart as big as his talents, Daniel was a devoted carpenter whose hands transformed houses into cherished homes.

Daniel was a man of strong convictions, known for his blunt honesty and headstrong nature. Many remember him as someone always ready to lend a hand, whether it was helping friends move or tackling a home improvement project. Nothing was more important to Daniel than his children. His love for them was strong and unwavering.

Beyond his dedication to family and work, Daniel found joy in life's simple pleasures. He loved golf, woodworking, and spending time outdoors—camping, fishing, and working on his yard were among his favorite pastimes.

A good son, brother, father, and friend, Daniel's memory will be cherished by those who had the privilege of encountering his spirited personality and warm heart. He took great pride in the renovations he completed on his parents' house, a stunning 117-year-old Victorian home. Each fireplace he installed, every panel he painted, and the lovingly crafted kitchen and bathrooms are now a part of his enduring legacy.

And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters.
