With My heart full of love, joy and happiness I was born into this world November 30, 2012 as Miss QueenLyris Lanae Hardy to Markesha Jennings and Edward Hardy in Grand Rapids,MI.
QueenLyris leaves to cherish her precious memories,
her parents Markesha Jennings and Edward Hardy.
One sister Six brothers, Grandmother (Kizzy Ferguson), Grandfather Mark Jennings, Aunties (Angel & April Hardy Marissa Rodriguez, Jasmine Walker).
Uncles (Maurice Gillen Jr, Devin Love, and Mark Jennings Jr).
Also, a host of cousins, family and friends.
Preceded in death paternal grandparents
Huber Hardy & Deborah Milton
Maternal great great grandmother Rossie, great great grandfather Paul Harden, great great grandfather Alfrat;, Ferguson and great great Auntie Mica Ferguson.
I went to East Leonard Elemantary School from Kindergarten to Second Grade.
I completed Third and Fourth Grade at William C Abney Academy. From Fifth to Seventh Grade I attended
Martin Luther King Jr. Leadership Academy. I played Volleyball, I was a cheerleader, I was also involved in the after school program (Girl Group).
My Journey at Helen Devos Children Hospital , but with a caring & compassionate team of Doctors, Nurses and other health care workers, they made my hospital stay comfortable and relaxed as possible.
Most say I was kind, respectful, a joy to be in their presence, and compassionate.
I gave encouraging words and advise to others.
When I needed it most. I also, enjoyed giving to others in need , would you consider me a giver?
Or a child with a pure heart of gold?
I loved to dance, artistic in drawing,coloring ,going to the movies.
I also enjoyed the Broadway live play, and yes I saw
"Lion King" at the Devos Performance Hall.
A amazing blessing occurred on September 18, 2026.
During my stay at Helen Devos children Hospital,
Rev. Kelly Stepanek baptized me.
After battling cancer for so long I am at peace. My 13 year journey on earth has completed September 19,2026.
My Heavenly Father welcomed me to his heavenly mansion.
