

*[i carry your heart with me
(i carry it in)]*

*i carry your heart with me
(i carry it in my heart)
i am never without it (anywhere i go you go, my dear;
and whatever is done by only me is your doing, my darling)*

*i fear no fate (for you are my fate, my sweet)
i want no world (for beautiful you are my world, my true) and it's you are whatever a moon has always meant and whatever a sun will always sing is you* *here is the deepest secret nobody knows (here is the root of the root and the bud of the bud and the sky of the sky of a tree called life;

which grows higher than soul can hope or mind can hide) and this is the wonder that's keeping the stars apart*

*i carry your heart
(i carry it in my heart)*

By - E. E. Cummings

FOREVER IN OUR Hearts

Diana Wagner

October 17, 1977 - May 17, 2025

The tree of life stands strong, reaching for the sky while deeply rooted in the earth, providing unwavering strength.

In Loving Memory
Diana Wagner
October 17, 1977 - May 17, 2025

FUNERAL SERVICE

Bismarck Funeral Home

Thursday, May 22, 2025 ~ 1:00 PM

Pastor Martha HarriSon ~ Officiant

Opening Song Prelude and Fugue No. 1 in C Major Johann Sebastian Bach

Welcome

Opening Prayer

Reading

Reflection

Ross Frohlich

Message

Song

What a Wonderful World

Louis Armstrong

Prayer

Commendation

Benediction

Song

Dog Days are Over Florence & The Machine

Following the service, the family invites you to join them for refreshments and fellowship downstairs.

Scan the QR Code to view the Celebration of Life Video

SERVICES PROVIDED BY BISMARCK FUNERAL HOME & CREMATORY
Mike Nathe · Shawn & Alison Harrington · Doug Rode ~ Directors

Diana Lea Wagner, a beacon of selflessness and gentleness. Born on October 17, 1977, in Tioga, ND, Diana's life was a testament to kindness, dedication, and love.

Diana's early years were spent across several communities, where she left her mark through both academics and extracurriculars. She began elementary school in Williston, ND, continued through middle school in Gonzales, TX, and graduated from high school in Dickinson, ND. During her school years, she expressed her musical talents by playing the tuba and clarinet and was an enthusiastic member of the marching band. Her lively spirit also shone through her participation in dance and cheerleading, reflecting her love for movement, music, and connection.

Diana united in marriage with Shad Wagner on April 15, 2000, in Dickinson, ND. Together, they built their lives and homes in Minneapolis, Fargo, and eventually settled in Watford City. Their greatest joys were their beloved daughters, Skyy and Savanna.

In March 2009, Diana began her life-long career at First International Bank and Trust, where she recently celebrated 16 dedicated years. Diana brought excellence, grace, and unmatched devotion to her work leaving an indelible mark on the bank. She found immense pride and joy in her role, but even more so in the relationships she built—colleagues who became a second family and a workplace that became a second home. Her presence leaves an irreplaceable void in the hearts of many.

Outside of her professional life, Diana found joy in the simple and meaningful moments that brought warmth to those around her. She was a masterful pie baker, known for her beautifully detailed designs and famously flaky crusts—each pie a labor of love and a gift to those fortunate enough to enjoy them. Her creativity extended to crocheting, where she lovingly crafted washcloths, blankets, and shawls, each stitch infused with care and thoughtfulness. At home, she was never far from the side of her loyal Boston Terrier, Douglas, who would curl up beside her on the couch, offering his quiet companionship and comfort. Diana also embraced life's adventures—she had a deep love for music and live concerts, camping trips, pontoon rides on the river, cherished weekends at the family's lake place, and traveling to new places. Though always up for the next experience, she remained grounded in what mattered most: being fully present for the people she loved.

To know Diana was to know kindness in its purest form. She would give you the shirt off her back—and then gently ask if you were warm enough. Her love was steady, her spirit calm, her generosity boundless. She was the person you could count on without question, the friend who listened deeply and never judged, the mother who gave endlessly, and the soul who gave more than she ever took.

Diana is survived by her daughters, Skyy (Cole Blazek) and Savanna Wagner (Bismarck); special friend, Garrett Woodruff (Bismarck); parents, Kevin and Julie Eide (Williston); brothers, Jeremy Eide (Williston) and Marshall (Suji) Eide (Kanagawa, Japan); and sister, Dena (Lyle) Gudmunsen (Broken Arrow, OK).

She was preceded in death by her husband, Shad (2013); her maternal grandparents, Einar & Ruth Erlandsen; and paternal grandparents, Bud & Donna Eide.

Diana's legacy is not only written in the memories she leaves behind but also in the warmth, gentleness, and love she gave so freely which will forever be cherished by all who knew her.