Called Home

God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So He wrapped His arms around you
And whispered, "Come with Me."
You did not walk alone
For part of us went too,
The day God called you home
Our hearts still walk with you.
Your love will stay within us
Your memory will never fade,
You will live on in the lives
Of the many hearts you made.

REFLECTIONS

“The earth is the Lord’s, and the fullness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. For He hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the rivers.” Psalm 24:1–2

Larry Roscoe Wall was born on February 18, 1960, and departed this life on February 7, 2026. He was the beloved son of the late Sam Wall and the late Geneva Wall.

Larry was educated in the Scotland County school system. He was a faithful member of Jones Chapel Church in Laurinburg, North Carolina, where he worshiped and served until relocating from Laurinburg. His faith was an important part of his life, and he carried it with him wherever he went.

Larry leaves to cherish his memory his loving son, Little Larry Wall. He is also survived by two sisters, Mary Wall of Smithfield, North Carolina, and Evangelist Bernita (George) Hamilton of Richland, North Carolina; one brother, Daniel Wall of Murray, North Carolina; and a host of nieces and nephews of Laurinburg, North Carolina, along with many other relatives and friends who will miss him dearly.

Larry’s life will be remembered with love, and his memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.
