

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair; perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so we saw it there; perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say; perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much whatever the part. May God forever bless each of you.

IN THE GARDEN

*I come to the garden alone, while the dew is still on the roses;
And the voice I hear, falling on my ear, the Son of God discloses.*

Refrain:

*And He walks with me, and He talks with me, and He tells me I am His own,
And the joy we share as we tarry there, none other has ever known.*

*He speaks, and the sound of His voice is so sweet the birds hush their singing;
And the melody that He gave to me within my heart is ringing.*

[Refrain]

*I'd stay in the garden with Him tho' the night around me be falling;
But He bids me go; thro' the voice of woe, His voice to me is calling.*

[Refrain]

She wanted everyone to feel special and loved. She also loved to travel. Her favorite places were the mountains, Las Vegas, and the beach.

Judy was a member of Elm Street Church of Christ in Coleman before moving to Kansas.

Remaining to cherish Judy's memory are her husband, Phillip Chambers; children, Aimee Bunting, and her husband Joseph Bunting, of Shallowater, TX, Randall Chambers, and his wife Erin Chambers, of Whitewater, KS, and James Chambers, and his wife Celina Chambers, of Temple, TX; grandchildren, Kaytlyn Bunting Shelley, and her husband Brendan Shelley, Gage Bunting, Cooper Bunting, Kaci Chambers, Keller Chambers, Olivia Chambers, Jackson Chambers, Ethan Romney, Tyler Romney, and Noah Romney; great-grandchildren, Hudson Romney; brother, Lynn Wright; sister, Clara Gibson; and multiple nieces, nephews, and in-laws.

Paradise Valley

*As I travel through life, with its trouble and strife,
I've a glorious hope to give cheer on the way:
Soon my toil will be o'er and I'll rest on that shore
Where the night has been turned in-to day.*

Chorus:

*Up in the beautiful paradise valley,
By the side of the river of life
Up in the valley, the wonderful valley,
We'll be free from all pain and all strife
There we shall live in the rose-tinted garden,
Neath the shade of the evergreen tree,
How I long for the paradise valley,
Where the beauty o' heaven I'll see*

*As I roam the hill-side, or I list to the tide,
As I pluck the sweet flowers that grow in the dale;
A faint picture is there of a land bright and fair,
Where perennial flowers ne'er fail.*

[Chorus]

*Tho' your garden is rare, it is naught to compare
Whit the flowers bloom in the garden above
In the midst of it grows Sharon's perfect sweet Rose
'Tis the wonderful flower we love.*

[Chorus]
