

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The family of William Robert Nixon extends heartfelt gratitude for the many acts of kindness, love, and support shown during this time of loss. Your thoughtful expressions of sympathy have been a source of comfort and strength.

Special thanks to the family, friends, and all who stood beside us, shared memories, offered words of encouragement, and sent flowers during this time.

SANDERS
FUNERAL HOME
806 E Market St • Smithfield, NC 27577
Phone: (919) 934-8416
sandersfuneralhome@yahoo.com

CELEBRATING THE Life OF

WILLIAM — ROBERT —
NIXON

MAY 1, 1976 — AUGUST 19, 2026

OBITUARY

William Robert Nixon, of Garner, North Carolina, passed away unexpectedly at the age of 50. He was born on May 1, 1976, to the late Laura Ann Nixon and William Paige.

Affectionately known as “T” by those who knew and loved him, William was a shining light in the lives of many. His life was marked by love, compassion, and an unwavering faith in Allah. He possessed a spirit that left a lasting impression on those fortunate enough to cross his path, and his presence will be deeply missed by his family, friends, and the many others whose lives he touched.

Although his passing leaves an immeasurable void, William’s life will be remembered for far more than the circumstances of his departure. He will be remembered for the way he lived, the love he shared, the relationships he cherished, and the profound impact he made on those around him. The memories created throughout his life will remain a lasting source of comfort to all who knew and loved him.

William leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife, Shirlene Tranquille Nixon; his sons, Javon Reed, Jadin Nixon, Aydin Nixon, and Ah’san; his brothers, Rodney Nixon (Tamika) and Aron Paige (Joanna); his uncles, Robert Nixon and Eric Nixon; and his aunt, Marsha Nixon.

He also leaves to cherish his memory his father-in-law, Fequiere Tranquille; his brothers- and sisters-in-law, Steve and Stacy Tranquille, Mike and Jocelyn Tranquille, Dwayne and Leah Tranquille, and Tanichka Tranquille; his cousins, Danielle Nixon, Briant Nixon, and Keith Nixon; along with a large extended family and many dear friends who will forever treasure his memory.

William was preceded in death by his parents, Laura Ann Nixon and William Paige; his grandparents, Vernell Bellinger, Walter Bellinger, and Fredrick Nixon; his uncles, Eddy Nixon and Briant Nixon; his mother-in-law, Sylfine Tranquille; his brother-in-law, Walter Tranquille; and his niece, Aniyah Selene Tranquille.

William’s time on this earth may have ended far sooner than those who loved him could have imagined, but the love he gave, the memories he created, and the lives he touched will continue to carry his legacy forward. He will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered.

— IN LOVING — MEMORY

Some lives make a bigger impact just by being lived.
Not because of what they had,
but because of who they were.

You showed up with quiet strength,
a steady presence, and a heart that cared.
You didn’t have to say much —
your actions spoke for you.

You were the kind of man
who made people feel seen, heard, and valued.
You gave your time, your support, and your love without hesitation.

Though you are no longer here, your influence lives on —
in the lives you touched,
the lessons you left behind,
and the memories we will always hold close.

You may be gone from our sight,
but you will never be gone from our hearts.