To My Family Members

I am writing to let you all know my final thoughts and what I would like you to remember about me. I want you all to know I have done the best I could with the life I had. I tried to be the best person that I could. I wanted to be nice and friendly to all people to the end.

I have been the best sister I knew how to be, I have been the best auntie I knew how to be to my nieces and nephews.

Also, I have been the best cousin and niece that I knew how to be. Even though he died some time ago, I want it to be known that I loved my husband and was there for him to the end.

I loved my church. I loved working in the church as long as I had a church. I love all of you. Most of all I loved God. I leave behind you all peace and love. God Bless you.

Love, Janie

James Life

Mrs. Janie Lois Davis of Conyers, GA, returned home to be with the Lord on April 19, 2026. She was preceded in death by her high school sweetheart, Willie Davis on November 16, 2013, who she joined in holy matrimony on July 11, 1964. She was a loving and devoted wife to Willie. She loved him from the bottom of her heart.

Janie, the third of twelve children, was born to the late James and Annie Lee Flanigan. She was preceded in death by her sisters, Martha Ponder, Annette Stephens, Ida Sue Davis, and brother, John Flanigan. Janie was educated in the Rockdale Schools System. She loved the Lord. During early adulthood she was baptized and joined White's Chapel Methodist Church and sang in the choir for Christ. Janie also attended Bethlehem Baptist Church with Willie and joined him in the choir. Janie's love of worship through praise in song extended to her participation in the Turner Lake Voices. She was also crowned Valentine Queen there.

Janie was a hard worker. She worked 14 years at McGregor, 7 months at Covington Manufacturing, and 12 years with the Newton County School system where she retired as a monitor on the special education school bus. Janie and Willie both worked for twenty-five years in the cleaning business at the bank.

Janie loved life. Forever cherishing her memory are her surviving siblings, Wyvonia Flanigan, Jessie Collier, Elizabeth Jones, Judas Flanigan (Wileen), Michael (Barbara) Gregory (Daphne); surviving in-laws, Charles Davis and Mae Francis Davis; nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends. She was very caring and now watches us from above.
