Funeral Service

Saturday, October 31, 2026 — 2:00 PM
Bethel Church
Yale, South Dakota

Officiant

Rev. Coalt Robinson

Scripture Reader

Rev. Gordon Wiebe

Life Story Reader

Jeff Decker

Music

Desirae Robinson — Pianist
- Vocalists -
Charity Stahl, Dave Berg
and Brent Stahl

- Congregational Hymn -
10,000 Reasons

- Special Selection -
Love Of God

- Congregational Hymn -
Standing On The Promises

Casket Bearers

Greg Engst
Tim Ketcham
David Stahl
Justin Lindquist
Dave Harrington
Cord Glanzer

Interment

Bethel Church Cemetery
Yale, South Dakota

Thank you for the many kindnesses
you have shown us,
and your presence today.

The family of
Delroy Stahl

Memorials may be directed to Delroy's son,
Jordan Stahl and his family.

Kuhler
Funeral Home
1360 Dakota Avenue South
Huron, South Dakota 57350
605-352-4234
www.kuhlerfuneralhome.com

In Loving Memory

Delroy Stahl

October 8, 1963

**—

October 24, 2026

Delroy David Stahl, 63, of Yale, South Dakota passed away unexpectedly on October 24, 2026, at his home.

Delroy was born on October 8, 1963, to DeLor and Delores Stahl. He joined an older brother, Delvin and sister, Delphia. He attended Huron schools K-8 taking the long bus ride from the farm. He graduated from James Valley Christian School in 1982, where he enjoyed playing basketball, soccer, and excelled in pole vaulting, of which he still holds the school record. He studied computers and technology at Dakota Wesleyan in Mitchell for three semesters. He was married for several years to Gayla Eid and they shared a son, Jordan. Delroy worked on the farm raising livestock and growing crops along with his dad and brother. Being the best farmer he could be was a passion for him. Delroy kept up with all of the changing and developing farming technologies. He was a determined learner and continued acquiring skills to operate high-tech machinery, continually educating himself about new science related to precision farming, soil preservation and chemical application. His birthday plans were always to "spend a great day in the office", the combine cab. His last days were spent bringing in the harvest of beans and corn.

Delroy accepted Jesus as his Savior on February 28, 1973, as was written in his own handwriting in his Bible. He was baptized and became a member of Bethel Church, rural Yale, South Dakota in 1979. Delroy was often encouraged by listening to Christian music, testimonies, and sermons online. He was a sports fan and particularly enjoyed testimonies of famous athletes who professed a bold faith in Jesus. Delroy was no stranger to disappointment and pain both emotionally and physically. This caused him to have compassion on others going through hard times. He often texted prayer emojis and we know he really followed through with prayer. He always wanted to help and give to others in the community.

Delroy loved to golf. In season, he was part of weekly golfing leagues. Delroy and his cousins enjoyed annual golf trips to beautiful and challenging courses across the country. In recent years, he looked forward to visiting his son, Jordan and family in Kansas City. Delroy embraced his title of "Papa Roy" as he was called by his three beautiful grandchildren who always looked forward to his visits and loved playing with him. His daughter-in-law. Erika shared new delicious tastes in food from her Hispanic culture. Erika's extended family greatly loved Delroy and saw him as one of their own family members.

He is survived by his son, Jordan (Erika) Stahl; three grandchildren, Mia, Troy and Miguel all of Kansas City, Missouri; brother, Delvin (Winona) Stahl of Huron; sister, Delphia (Gordon) Wiebe of Doland; nieces, Jennifer Stahl and Charity Stahl, both of Omaha, Nebraska, Tiffani Pauls of Wichita, Kansas, Adrienne Grace of Des Moines, Iowa, Allison Petersen of Willmar, Minnesota; nephew, Austin Wiebe of Minneapolis, Minnesota. His memory is also cherished by many other extended family and friends.