

REFLECTIONS OF HER LIFE

Betty Thompson Haygood

Betty Ann Thompson was born on March 1, 1963, to late Harry and Ella Mae Thompson. Like the rest of humanity, I was a mess for the first 32 years of my life, hurting others and being hurt trying to fill the hole in my soul. Then on September 27, 1995. I became a born-again daughter into God's royal priesthood. I became an imitator of my brother Christ Jesus. I stopped being a believer in name only and started learning to walk as Jesus walked and making disciples of all nations. Plus, I strived to give God a good name daily to the very end always ending my prayer with God's will be done.

Betty was proceeded in death by her Sister Patricia Goodwin and her Brother Asa J Thompson.

Betty leaves to cherish her loving memories her husband Isiah of 29 years, one son, Vent (Angela) Abercrombie of Utah, Taiasha (Jessica) Haygood-Lewis of Texas and Meeka Haygood of Virginia, Brother Harry (Ariska) Thompson of Seattle, WA and Honoray Brother-in-law Bernard Brailsford of Hopkins, SC., Brother-in-Law Richard Her Sisters Gloria Thompson of Lexington, SC, Renda Fant of Simpsonville, SC and Wendy Brailsford of Hopkins, SC, Four Grandsons: Trevante, Julian and Enzo of Utah, Antonio II of Virginia and a granddaughter Kayden of Texas. CLOSING AND INVITATION FOR FELLOWSHIP

In My Struggle To Be Free

In my struggle to be free, I realize one thing, It wasn't the world I was fighting with it was the sin that lives within, I tried so hard to cover my sin, but when I looked in the mirror it was there within,

The emptiness was great the sorrow was deep and no matter what I tried I would just was, rinse and repeat my misery. Who would save me from this pit of hell I live in everyday, I'm so bad is there even away.

Now I remember the God of my parents, the one that completed their lives. The God that brought them Mercy, Hope and Joy through faith, they had everything and this was the life I now want to live. So, in my struggle to be free I now have discovered the truth, that Jesus the Christ died to save my soul, removing all my sin. I will now walk as Jesus walked, daily giving the Holy Father a good name and most of all never being ashamed to give all credit to the Father, Son and Holy Ghost.
