THE BROKEN CHAIN

We knew little that morning,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Words are inadequate to express the humbleness and gratefulness we feel towards all of you who consoled us during the death of our loved one.

Your prayers, love, presence, and giving, have sustained us.

Your cards, telephone calls, visits, gifts, and service were graciously appreciated. We saw all of these as God's love expressed through you.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you very much for your part.

Please keep us in your prayers.

Life Profile

Mr. Jerry Dean Crocker, known to most as “Blue”, was born on March 12, 1953, to the late Mr. Robert and the late Mrs. Ruth Pruitt Crocker. He was a member of Golden Street Baptist Church. Jerry attended schools in the Spartanburg County school system.

Jerry was a very family-oriented man who loved his children, other family members, and friends. He was known as a master "Tinkler" because he loved to work on cars. Jerry was an avid traveler, loved to tell jokes, enjoyed a game of Spades at any given time, and was very outgoing and sociable. His favorite color was blue. If you knew him, you can agree that he had a heart of gold.

He leaves to cherish fond and loving memories to three sons, Mr. Jerry Dean (Celeste) Crocker of Simpsonville, South Carolina, Mr. Reggie (Christina) Crocker, and Mr. Anthony (Mariah) Crocker both of Spartanburg, South Carolina; 15 grandchildren; 6 great-grandchildren; two brothers, Mr. Robert Crocker of Hartford, Connecticut and Mr. Eugene (Dr. Betty) Crocker of Spartanburg, South Carolina; three sisters, Mrs. Doris (Jesse) Robinson of Spartanburg, South Carolina, Mrs. Annie Pearl (James) Carson and Mrs. Joyce (Frankie) Albaladejo both of Columbia, South Carolina; a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, great-great nephews, cousins, and many friends.

Jerry was pre-deceased, along with his parents, by a daughter, Moneca Fields and a brother, Larry Crocker.

Jerry entered eternal rest on December 6, 2022, at Spartanburg Regional Medical Center, with his family surrounding him.
