A FALLEN Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.

I keep hearing a voice that says,

"Grieve not for me.

*Remember the best times,
the laughter, the song.*

*The good life I lived
while I was strong.*

*Continue my heritage,
I'm counting on you.*

Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.

*My mind is at ease,
my soul is at rest.*

*Remembering all,
how I truly was blessed.*

*Continue traditions,
no matter how small.*

*Go on with your life,
don't worry about falls.*

*I miss you all dearly,
so keep up your chin.*

*Until the day comes
we're together again."*

THE BROKEN Chain

*You were raised up with us like a brother.
The bond you had with our mother was unmatched.
It brings some comfort to our hearts
to know that we all were there,
every step of the way during your final days.
We were deeply saddened the morning that God quietly called your name.
In life we loved you so much,
in death it remains the same.
It broke all our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone;
for part of us went with you,
the morning God called you home.
You left so many peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide;
and though we can not see you,
you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken
and nothing seems the same,
but one day,
the chain will link together again.*
