IN LOVING MEMORY

In the Garden

I come to the garden alone, while the dew is still on the roses;
And the voice I hear, falling on my ear, The Son of God discloses.
He speaks, and the sound of His voice is so sweet the birds hush their singing;
And the melody that He gave to me within my heart is ringing.
I'd stay in the garden with Him though the night around me be falling;
but He bids me go through the voice of woe, His voice to me is calling.
And He walks with me and He talks with me and He tells me I am His own
And the joy we share as we tarry there, none other has ever known.
