23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Geraldine Symaner Marshall (affectionately known as Gerry) was born on June 6, 1937, in Claremont, North Carolina, to the late Pearl and Virginia Mundy. She departed this life surrounded by loving family on July 28, 2025.

Geraldine accepted Christ at an early age at Liberty Hill Baptist Church in North Carolina. Later, she became a member of St. Mark Missionary Baptist Church under the pastorate of Rev. Dr. Cecil Ferrell. She served faithfully on the Senior Ushers' Board until her health began to fail.

She graduated from Catawba Rosenwald High School on May 17, 1956. She was voted Most Popular in her senior high school year, known as the best dancer, and remembered for her witty sayings. She also played on the women's basketball team and often bragged about how good she was.

After graduation, she moved to Cincinnati, Ohio. There, she attended cosmetology school and became a hairstylist. She was also employed at Frisch's Big Boy. Geraldine was a proud member of the Eastern Star.

Geraldine met her husband, Eckie Marshall Jr., and they were married on May 22, 1967. To this union, four children were born: Edwin, Virgil, Virginia, and Monika. She was also blessed to share her life with four of her husband's children—Helen, Zabiya, Michael, and Mackeroy—whom she loved and adored as her own. She was a wonderful mother to all the children.

Geraldine enjoyed family gatherings and had a special love for sports, especially the Cincinnati Reds. Her hobbies included cooking, shopping, traveling, and gardening. Her favorite holiday was Christmas. Together, Eckie and Geraldine owned a cleaning service for over twenty years prior to their retirement.

The family acknowledges with grateful hearts the care given to Geraldine by her husband, Eckie, during her extended illness.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Pearl and Virginia Mundy; her brothers, Oscar and Norman; and her son, Virgil Marshall.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Eckie Marshall Jr.; children: Helen (Joe) Clark, Zabiya (Ahiqar) Israel, Edwin (Lorraine) Marshall, Michael (Lashaun) Marshall, Mackeroy Marshall, Virginia (Shannon) Murray, and Monika Steele; and five generations of grandchildren, along with many extended family members and friends.
