SHEILA EVON WHEELER DOYLE NELSON LIFE STORY

On December 24, 1952, God blessed Dorothy Weaver Wheeler and Lorenza Wheeler Sr. with a beautiful baby girl, Sheila Evon. She blossomed into a loving mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, whose warm personality attracted everyone around her. She had a deep love for all and was cherished by all who had the pleasure of knowing her.

She was educated in Berkeley County school system and graduated from Berkeley Training High School. She furthered her education at the Charleston Business Institute, College of Charleston, SC State College and Sally Beauty & Cosmetology School. Her life was distinguished by dedication and service as she devoted 20 years to Cainhoy High School as attendance clerk, receptionist, bus driver, counselor and many other capacities. She was also a former member of the Order of the Eastern Star. Moncks Corner Chapter #161.

Her dedication to the community was evident through her faithful membership at Nazareth Reformed Episcopal Church where she contributed her time and talents to the decorating committee and the gospel choir. Her steadfast faith in the Lord was the foundation of her life. Throughout her three-year battle with cancer, Sheila's gratitude and praise for God remained constant.

Sheila's love language was connecting with people, and she never met a stranger. Her favorite saying was, "I love everybody." Always ready to lend a hand, she was incredibly affectionate and had a heart of gold. She welcomed family near and far, as well as many children and others, into her home and cared for them with unwavering kindness. She was celebrated as the family historian, always reaching out and connecting with every branch of her family tree.

She had the remarkable talent of making everyone feel like a friend. Blessed with the ability to spiritually connect with others, she saw no enemies and kept her heart filled with the Holy Spirit, leaving no room for negativity. She was always willing to give her last to help someone in need.

On, Tuesday, April 8, 2025, Sheila transitioned to her eternal rest. She was preceded by her father, Lorenza Wheeler Sr.; step-father, Johnnie Green; brother, Michael Wheeler and her in-laws, Frank and Bertha Lee Nelson.

She leaves a legacy of love and cherished memories to her husband Francis Nelson Jr.; her loving and devoted mother, Dorothy Wheeler Green; her loving son, Julian Tyrone Doyle of Summerville, SC; her devoted and loving daughter, Lashonya (Daryl) Frazier of Ridgeville, SC; and devoted son, Terrence Doyle of Goose Creek, SC; stepsons, Francisco Thomas of Ladson, SC and Kunta (Shalicia) Thomas of Hanahan, SC; those she nurtured in the home, Kevin (Wilma) Weaver of Bronx, New York, granddaughter Isis Doyle and great-granddaughter Ava Doyle both of Moncks Corner, SC; her cherished grandchildren and great-grandchildren; siblings, Lorenza (Debra) Wheeler, Yolanda Wheeler both of Moncks Corner, SC and Tonya Toms of Connecticut; stepbrother, Renard Green and stepsister, Bonita Green both of Columbia SC; one aunt, Audrey Moore of Charleston, SC and one uncle, Roy Lee Wheeler of Cleveland, OH; brother-in-law, Nathan (Angela) Nelson; sisters-in-law, Mary (Jimmy) Walker and Sharon Spann.

Her extended family includes: Larry (Julie) Campbell, Moncks Corner, SC. special cousins Jewnette Adkinson and Milton Moore; her best friend, Verna Black, along with a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends who will also cherish her memory.

Her legacy of love, kindness, and service will be remembered and treasured by all who knew her. She will be deeply missed but forever in our hearts.

If Roses Grow in Heaven

If Roses grow in Heaven
Lord, please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my Mother's arms
and tell her they're from me.
Tell her that I love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for a while.
Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
but there's an ache within my heart
that will never go away.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR Wonderful Grandmother

Of all the special gifts in life
however great or small,
to have you as our Grandmother was the greatest gift of all.
May the winds of love blow softly
and whisper in your ear
"We love and miss you Grandmother and wish that you were here"
Deep in our hearts, your life is kept to love and cherish, not forget. No more tomorrows we can share but yesterdays are always there.
A silent thought, a secret tear Keeps your memory ever near in our hearts forever.

REFUSE TO BE DISCOURAGED

I refuse to be discouraged, To be sad, or to cry;
I refuse to be downhearted, And here's the reason why...
I have a God who's mighty, who's sovereign and supreme;
I have a God who loves me, and I am on His Team.
He is all wise and powerful, Jesus is His name;
Though everything is changeable, my God remains the same
My God knows all that's happening; beginning to the end,
His presence is my comfort, He is my dearest friend.
When sickness comes to weaken me, to bring my head down low,
I call upon my mighty God; Into His arms I go.
When circumstances threaten to rob me from my peace;
He draws me close unto His breast, Where all my strivings cease.
And when my heart melts within me, and weakness takes control;
He gathers me into His arms, He soothes my heart and soul.
The great "I AM" is within me, my life is in His hand,
The "Son of the Lord" is my hope, it's in His strength I stand.
I refuse to be defeated, my eyes are on my God;
He has promised to be with me, as through this life I trod.
I'm looking past all circumstances, O heaven's throne above;
My prayers have reached the heart of God, I'm resting in His Love.
I give God Thanks in everything, my eyes are on His face;
The battle's His, the Victory is mine; He'll help me win the race.

And the Lord said, Behold,
there is a place by Me,
and thou shalt stand
