

You were more than family.
 I would run out of words before I could ever explain what you meant to us.
 You were laughter in moments we needed you.
 You were a shoulder to lean on when life got too heavy.
 And a breath of fresh air when life made it hard to breathe.
 It's been quieter since you left us. Even though it's Spring life just feels colder without you.
 Waiting to hear your voice and knowing we won't ever get that pleasure again is agonizing.
 Wanting to spend just a little more time with you and knowing that's not an option is a heavy burden to carry.
 We miss the little things.
 Songs we use to listen to, inside jokes that had us laughing for hours.
 Memories that we'll carry forever because we refuse to let your legacy fade away.
 Death took you far too soon, but what death could NEVER do is erase the love or the bond that we built our entire lives around.
 We'll carry you close to our heart in everything we do from this day forward because even though you aren't here your legacy will continue to live through us.
 Until the day we meet again. Know that you did a job well done, so please rest easily knowing that we have it from here.
 May you rest in love and peace knowing that down here you'll never be forgotten and you will always be missed.

Obituary

Keyshawn Marquis Cooper affectionately known to his family and friends as “Coop” was born on June 12, 1996 to Mark Cooper, and the late Janice Simon.

On May 4, 2026, God rewarded a true PRINCE his wings.

“Coop” attended the public schools of Darlington County and Florence County.

“Coop” was preceded in death by his mother Janice Simon; grandmother, Roberta Simon; great grandmother, Rosa Simon who we know was overwhelmed and overjoyed to see him and welcome him. So as a family we know he is safe and happily smiling beyond the skies.

He leaves to cherish his memories a daughter, London Grace Wilson; a son, Kayson Josiah Cooper; two brothers: Dashante Depugh and Montaque Gregg; five sisters: Keyquana Simon, Nicole Gibbs, Tiarra Gibbs, Bria (Samica) Robinson and Bernice Simon; two mothering aunts: Jessie Marie Simon and Marilyn (Wendell) Gregg, and an uncle, Shanta Simon (all of Florence, SC); an auntie, Clara Wilson; father, Mark Cooper; godmother, Timesha (Kenny) Muldrow; grandmother, Earline Cooper (Darlington, SC); his best friend, Tyra; his brothers from another mother: Josh, Mono, Mike Mike, Kenji, Jayshawn, Mook, TC, and Trey Trey; along with a host of other brothers, aunts, uncles and other family members and friends that loved him dearly and that he loved back.
