

Acknowledgement

The family gratefully acknowledges all acts of kindness given to them during this time of bereavement. The flowers, cards, meals, words of wisdom and encouragement, and prayers from everyone, everywhere have served to sustain us.

When I am gone release me, let me go, you must not tune yourself with tears. Be happy that we have had so many beautiful years. I gave to you my love, and gave you, my happiness. I thank you for the love you have shown but now I must travel alone. So, grieve a while if you must, and remember to trust the God, grateful for the memories within your heart.

Obituary

Weigelia Brown, of Cincinnati, Ohio, passed away on the morning of May 8, 2021 at the age of 65. She was the 5th of eight children. Born to parents Elizabeth South and Lawrence South Sr., on February 27, 1956 in Mt. Sterling, KY.

Preceded in death by both parents, son David Wallace, daughter, Kizzie Brown, two brothers Barry South, Clarence Robert South, and her special friend Danny Colbert.

Weigelia was baptized at an early age and attended church services with her brother Miller Jones.

Weigelia was a fun, loving person, who would often keep you laughing with her jokes. She loved music, dancing, playing cards with the family and spending time with her grandchildren.

During her last days she was often in pain but even though her physical heart was failing her, the person she was inside never changed. Her inner heart was still prospering and growing with love, courage, and strength. Despite whatever she was feeling, she was always striving to encourage others. Her love for faith and trust in God is what gave her the strength she needed to continue living.

She leaves to cherish her memory her five children; Michelle Wallace, Cincinnati, OH; Stephanie Brown Swansea, SC; Candice Brown, Cincinnati, OH; Anthony Wallace, Atlanta, GA; and McKinley Brown, Swansea, SC. Her brothers, Miller (Jewel) Jones; Lawrence South and sister Bettie Fisher. She also will be forever remembered by several nieces, nephews, grandchildren and extended family and friends.
