Humble Acknowledgment

Acknowledgements from the Family

The family of Carolyn Cure Gill wishes to express our heartfelt gratitude to everyone who has supported us during this difficult time. Your kind words, thoughtful gestures, prayers, and presence have brought comfort and strength to us all.

We extend our sincere appreciation to the staff of Walker Funeral Home for their compassionate care, professionalism, and dedication;
Pastor Carlton Ellis and the entire Calvary Baptist Church
congregation for their prayers, love, and spiritual support; and everyone who contributed in any way to ensuring that Carolyn was given a beautiful and dignified homegoing celebration.

A very special and heartfelt thank-you goes to the Pink Heart Society for their love, generosity, and support during this time of loss.

Your kindness and willingness to help have meant more to our family than words can express.

As we celebrate Carolyn's life and cherish the memories she leaves behind, we are reminded that love is most evident in the moments when people come together to support one another. May God bless each of you abundantly for every prayer, every act of kindness, and every expression of love shown to our family.

With heartfelt gratitude,
The Family of Carolyn "Boobie"

Until We Meet Again

When my journey to Heaven begins,
And my earthly life comes to an end,
I'll watch over you from my home above,
Surrounded by peace, wrapped in love.

Though you may not see me standing near,
My love will remain, forever right here.
Beyond this body, beyond the skies,
I'll be your angel, your guiding light.

Whenever you feel you can't carry on,
Remember my love will never be gone.
I'm in the whispers of the gentle breeze,
In the sunshine, the stars, and the rustling trees.

Our hearts are connected, forever as one,
Even when my earthly race is done.
So please don't think this is goodbye,
For love lives on, beyond the sky.

Until the day Heaven brings us together,
Hold me close in your heart forever.
I'll be waiting with open arms,
Where love never ends and there are no more goodbyes.

Until we meet again,
Remember, my love is forever.

Carolyn "Boobie" Cure Gill

On Thursday, December 11, 1952, God blessed Lula Mae Peterson-Cure and Robert Cure With one of life most precious gifts their daughter, Carolyn "Boobie" Cure Gill, Carolyn was the baby of eight children. She departed this earthly life and went home to be with the Lord on Thursday, October 1, 2026, at Mercy Fairfield Hospital.

Her Greatest Blessing: Motherhood

Carolyn was the proud mother of her children; one son, Walter Gill, and two daughters Chrystal Gill and Vintress"Peaches"Peada" Gill.
Everyone knows that her children hold a special place in her heart.
The love she poured into her family will forever remain a part of her legacy and live on through the generations that follow.

Her Faith and Love for the Lord

Carolyn accepted Christ at an early age. In 2006, she became a member of Calvary Baptist Church, under the leadership of Pastor J. R. Chisley, (now under the leadership of Pastor Carlton Ellis). Carolyn dearly loved her church, her pastor, and the entire congregation. She often spent time on the telephone with her great-nieces sharing stories and conversations about her beloved church., joining in prayer meetings and conversations about her church. She especially loved an extraordinary worship service and bringing a visitor along with her. Her faith was an important part of her life, and she never hesitated to remind those she loved to pray. Carolyn was once a Sunday School teacher and she truly enjoyed that.

A Life Full of Love and Personality

Carolyn lived and loved life to the fullest. She had a heart of gold and was a natural giver who found joy in caring for others. She loved her family, cooking, singing, laughing, dancing, talking on the telephone, playing her church music, and she threw in some of her favorite rap and R 'n' B music, dressing fly, & keeping her signature sharp, faded haircut complete with a design. And you certainly would not see Boobie without her signature nose-ring hoop chain extending to her ear! She had a style of her own and a personality that made her unforgettable.

Affectionately known by many as "Boobie," Carolyn attended Cincinnati Public Schools and graduated from Robert A. Taft High School in 1971. She spent much of her life growing up in Parktown, a place she proudly called her stomping grounds.

Carolyn's caring spirit naturally led her into the healthcare field. She worked at Children's Hospital and served as a nurse aide assistant, dedicating her time to helping and caring for others.

Boobie was never a stranger to anyone she met. Once she met you, she held on to you, loved you, and before long, you became family. She had a special way of making people feel welcomed and loved. Above all, one of her greatest joys was spending precious time with her baby girl, Peada. They were truly two peas in a pod. No matter what life brought her way, Carolyn encouraged her loved ones to keep praying and holding on to their faith.

A Legacy of Love

Carolyn's life was defined by the love she gave, the people she embraced, and the memories she created. She had a heart that made room for others, a spirit that brought joy, and a way of turning friendships into family. Her love will continue to live on through the many lives she touched and the generations who will carry her memory forward.

Those Who Preceded Her in Death

Those She Leave to Cherish Her Memory

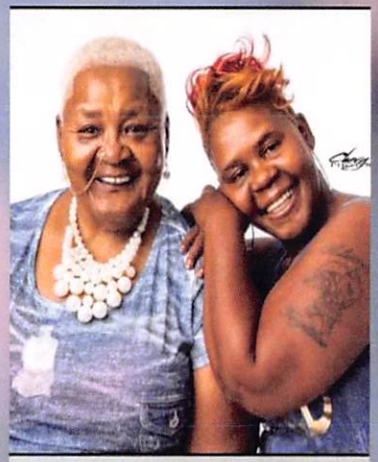

Carolyn "Boobie" leaves to cherish her sweet memories and enduring legacy her children: one son, Walter Gill, and two daughters, Chrystal Gill and Vintress "Peaches/Peada" Gill; her brother, Leroy Cure; her special nieces, great-nieces, and great-great-nieces and nephews, Keyiona Boston, Robert Boston (her beloved "Robbie"), Khendale Ramsey-Boston, Sir Thomas, Sire Boston, Reyonna Cooper, Angel Cure, and Nikkiea Berry; her godchildren, Nicholas and Kristina Metz; her best friends Linda Simms "L.D", and Joejamo; bonus nephew Brandon "B"; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and a "special friend" LOL, as well as other Family and friends.

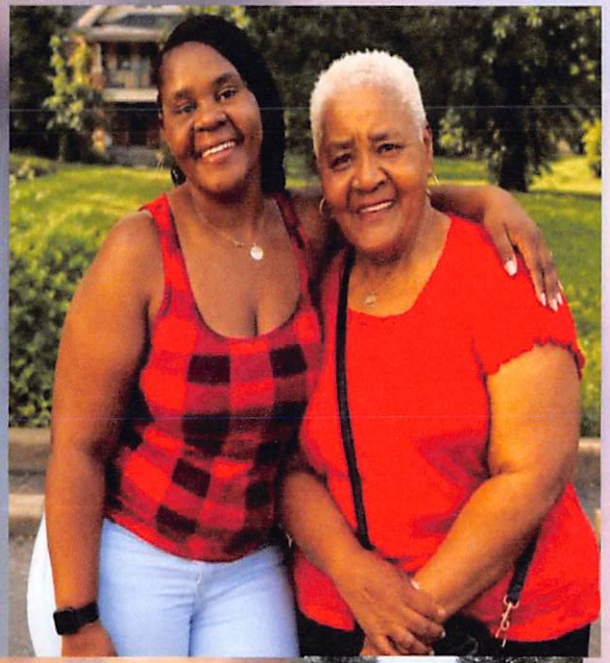

Though Carolyn's earthly journey has ended, the love she shared, the laughter she brought, the prayers she encouraged, and the memories she created will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

Rest peacefully, Carolyn "Boobie" Cure Gill. Your love will never be forgotten, and your legacy will live on forever.

And as much as she told us it's time we let her know
"WE'RE FOREVER GRATEFUL FOR HER"

Your Lights Still Shines In Our Hearts, Even In Your Absence.

Forever In our hearts

FOREVER REMEMBERED,

DEEPLY LOVED
