

Proverbs 3:5-6

Trust in the Lord with all your heart, lean not to your own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him and he will direct your path.

Obituary

Duane L. Bomar was born to the union of Henry and Phyllis Bomar, who preceded him in death. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his sister Carmen Bomar, and brothers, Pierre Bomar, Henry Bomar, and Mark Bomar.

Duane attended Cincinnati Public Schools, and upon graduation, he started working various jobs. I remember him at Abe Shoeshine on Gilbert Avenue, Beacher Meats on Gilbert Avenue, and several other jobs.

However, Duane was best known for his service to the Walnut Hills Soup Kitchen, managing the pantry. He dedicated 20 years of service helping those who are less fortunate. Some of Duane's favorite pastimes were listening to music, throwing horseshoes, playing dominoes, and other games with his friends.

Duane will truly be missed.

Thank you to the staff and volunteers at the soup kitchen for keeping Duane and our family in your hearts

He leaves to cherish his memory, his sisters, Veree Ann Russell, Michelle Bomar, and Joy Richard; brother Aaron Bomar; and a host of nieces and nephews, other relatives and friends.
