I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss;
Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seems all to brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Words cannot express how deeply we appreciate all the love, kindness, and support shown to us during this difficult time.
It will always be remembered.
May God bless each of you.

OBITUARY

Ms. Lois Sibley Davis was born in Rock Hill, South Carolina, on June 23, 1945 to the late Beulah Sibley and Riley Sibley. On Thursday, January 22, 2026 Lois entered eternal rest, she was 80 years old.

Lois worked and retired from Fort Mill School Transportation. Lois was everyone's aunt. She was known to be warm, stylish, and full of sparkle. A true diva. She carried herself with flawless beauty, confidence, and grace. Known for her honesty, and quick wit. She spoke with humor, heart, and a genuineness that made her unforgettable.

Lois loved shopping, traveling, and being a dedicated member at Mt. Hebron Baptist Church. Lois leaves behind a legacy of laughter, wisdom and a vibrant presence that will forever live in our hearts.

In addition to her parents, Lois was preceded in death by her siblings, James Sibley, Robert Sibley, Tommy Sibley, Willie Massey, Lee Sibley, Frank Sibley, Thelma Sibley, and Lucile Lowery. She is survived by her two sisters, Evangelist Janice Green and Reverend Lizzie Barber.

Left to cherish loving memories is her devoted niece, Leandria Evans, and nephew Lee Strong; along with her dear best friends, Rosa Lee Hicks, Mrs. Eva Simpson and Dianne Lindsey; along with a host of nieces and nephews.
