

John Frank Hebel

Military Taps

Day is done, gone the sun, From the hills, from the lake, from the skies. All is well, safely rest, God is nigh.

Go to sleep, peaceful sleep, may the soldier or sailor, God keep. On the land or the deep, Safe in sleep.

Love, good night, must thou go, when the day, and the night need thee so? All is well. Speedeth all To their rest.

Fades the light; And afar Goeth day, And the stars Shineth bright, Fare thee well; Day has gone, night is on.

Thanks and praise, for our days, 'Neath the sun, Neath the stars, 'Neath the sky, As we go, this we know, God is nigh.

Obituary

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of John Frank Hebel, age 84, who passed away peacefully on Saturday, November 9, 2024. John was born on September 17, 1940, to Arthur Osgood Hebel and Viola Jane Smith at Seton Hospital in Austin, Texas.

The eldest of four siblings, John graduated from Austin High School with the Class of '58 and later went on to earn an Associate of Arts degree from Temple College. He was happily married to Louise Kathleen Jaksha for 55 wonderful years. Together they raised three children: David, Chris, and Cynthia.

John proudly served in the Army, after which he dedicated over 30 years to a career in retail grocery management, ultimately concluding his professional journey with the State of Texas as an accountant. Known for his love of cars, John spent his spare time tinkering with and restoring vintage vehicles. He also inherited a passion for carpentry from his grandfather, which he skillfully applied while building the home he shared with Kathy for the past 30 years. His commitment to community service was evident through his membership in the American Legion.

John is preceded in death by his parents, Arthur and Viola. He is survived by his beloved wife, Kathy, their children David, Chris, and Cynthia, as well as his cherished grandchildren: Audrey, Laci, Brendan, Trenton, Micah, Grayson, and Kathryn. He also leaves behind his great-grandchildren, Nicholas and Madden Lee. John will be remembered for his kindness, dedication to family, and his many contributions to those around him. He will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.
