

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Flossie Mae Kenney was born on January 4, 1942, to the union of the late John and Eddie Mae Kenney. She was educated in the Cincinnati Public School system.

Flossie was a social butterfly who loved being surrounded by friends and family and always had a smile. She ensured that everyone in the home was well taken care of and often involved them in school functions and attended school field trips. She has one son, John Kenney, whom she shares with the late Samuel Hayes. She also helped care for her mother before her passing. Flossie enjoyed cooking, sewing, and playing the lottery.

She is preceded in death by her parents, John and Eddie Mae, her brother, Melvin Kenney, her sister, Maxine Kenney, and her uncle, William Kenney.

To honor her memories, Flossie leaves her son John Kenney, her grandchildren Felicia Marie Kenney and John Kenney Jr., her niece Schiffona Kenney, nephews Eddie and Melvin Kenney, and her sister-in-law Johnnie Mae Kenney. Along with a host of family members and close friends.

She will be dearly missed.
