LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Sally Ann Morris

Sally Ann Morris (aka Aunt Sal) was born in Lee County to Clinton Morris, Sr. and Vera Morris on June 25, 1954. On May 2, 2026, God sent His angels to carry her spirit on to glory surrounded by the love and support of her devoted family, right by her side.

Sally Ann accepted Christ at an early age and joined Johnson Chapel M. B. Church. She remained a faithful member until her health declined.

Aunt Sal was a strong soldier. Despite everything she went through, she always kept the faith. She never complained. She knew that the battle was not hers, but it was the Lord's. 2 Timothy 4:6-7, "For I am ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.

Sally worked at Kwiki Car Wash for many years. Later Sally and Martha opened their own business, Shannon Auto and Detail Shop. Her most recent employer was Martinrea in Shannon. She retired after her health declined.

Aunt Sally enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. She always loved entertaining in her front yard, where we would gather every weekend. She was the life of the party and the center of attention.

Aunt Sal will forever be cherished in the heart and mind of her sisters, Mildred Morris and Martha Ann Morris (Phillip). They were like "three peas in a pod". They were always together. She also leaves one special, loving and devoted aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Harris; her nieces; caregiver, and home nurse, Kathleen Owens (Lesley), caregiver, Youlanda Isby, Rachel Ward (Luke), Renee Morris, and Angie Martin Fear (Ron); nephews, Calvin Wayne Morris, Greg Morris, Corey Morris, Kennedy Morris, Dorian Morris, Kevin Gates, Preston Martin and Fitzgerald Martin (Michelle); her special great niece, Shay Cummings (Matt), a host of other nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.

Aunt Sal was preceded in death by her parents, Clinton and Vera Morris; brothers Clinton Morris, Jr. and Thomas Morris; a sister, Celia Reynolds; her grandparents, William Louis Morris, Sr., and Eliza Jane Perkins Morris and Fred and Hanna Morris.

Rest well Aunt Sal. Your vibrant spirit, loving heart and gentle smile will be dearly and truly missed by us all. Your memories will forever be cherished by all who had the privilege of knowing you.

Memories to Cherish

GOD SAW YOU GETTING TIRED

God saw you getting tired,
When a cure was not to be.
So He wrapped his arms around you,
and whispered, "Come to me".
You didn't deserve what you went through,
So He gave you rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best
And when I saw you sleeping,
So peaceful and free from pain
I could not wish you back
To suffer that all again.

Love, Your Sisters
Mildred and Martha

Aunt Sal,

You were my hero.
That you will always be. I knew God was sending His angels after you but on that day I did not see. You were a soldier on the battlefield who we all knew and could
see. God said, "Well done.
Your journey is done my child. Eternal life in Glory, there you will forever be."

Love, Kat

In Loving Memory Of Our Wonderful Auntie

Of all the special gifts in life however great or small,
To have you as our Auntie was the greatest gift of all.

May the winds of love blow softly and whisper in your ear
"We love and miss you Auntie and wish that you were here"

Deep in our hearts, your life is kept to love and cherish, not forget.
No more tomorrows we can share but yesterdays are always there.

A silent thought, a secret tear keeps your memory ever near in our hearts forever.

Love, Your Nieces
Shay, Rachel, Renee and Youlanda

The Broken Chain

We knew little that morning that
God was going to call your name,
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems to be the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Love, Your Nephews
