

My Story

You can't get into heaven with hate in your heart. -Elizabeth Grady

Elizabeth Juanita Grady was born at Pennsylvania Hospital to Wilmer and Towsie Grady in Philadelphia, PA.

She received her education at Kensington High School in Philadelphia, PA.

Liz went on to working in Customer and Public Services. She was one for her community. A true activist.

A voice that could not be silenced. She made sure every voice was heard and no question went unanswered. Ask Dwight Evans Liz accepted Christ at an early age. She joined Mt. Airy Baptist Church and later Messiah Triumph Church.

Liz was an outgoing person who loved her family, food, music and everything black. She was such an intelligent person.

She loved to read everything, and was a fierce Jeopardy and Scramble player. She especially knew the legal system very well. She was helpful in the ways only she knew and if it was on paper best believe she was the one to help you see it through.

She is going to be missed by many people but loved forever.

She was preceded in death by her Mother Towsie Grady, Sister Wilene Hodges, Son Walter Malik Riley Grady, and Husbands Walter Riley and Melvin Bland.

On October 1st 2025 she leaves to cherish her Father Wilmer(Marie), Brothers Wilmer(Trina) Willie Arthur Ashley(Jackie), Sisters Leona(Michael) and Linda. Nieces Damika, Johnette, Telisha, Dominique. Nephews Walter, Isaiah, Chase. God Daughter Sharnise(Ryshon) and a host of Great nieces and nephews.

Peace has finally come. We love you but God loves you best.

My Last Request

Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in. Don't say that I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win.

Please don't say how good I was, but that I did my best. Just say I tried to do what's right to give the most I could, not less.

Please don't give me wings or halos, That's for God to do. I want no more than I deserve. No extras, just my due.

Please don't give me flowers or talk in real hushed tones. Don't be concerned about me now, I'm well with God, I've made it home.

Don't talk about what could have been. It's over and let it be done, just let the work I've done speak for me.

When you draw a picture of me, don't draw me as a saint, I've done some good, I've done some wrong, So use all your paint. Not just bright and light tones, use some gray and dark, in fact don't put me down on canvas, paint me in your heart.

Don't just remember good times, but remember the bad, For life is full of many things, some happy and some sad.... But if you must do something, then I have one request, Forgive me for the wrongs I've done, and with the love that's left, Thank God for my soul's resting, Thank God for I've been Blessed. Thank God for all who loved me, Praise God who loved me best...

To Our Sister...

We're blessed to call you sister, we also call you friend; You've loved us unconditionally, And stood through thick and thin. You've shared our joys and sorrows, Our laughter, and Our tears. You've been our inspiration, As we grew up through the years. When we were little children we laughed and played together. Then growing up you stood by us, through good and stormy weather. There's something God has given us, That's more than family. He placed a love for you, Our sister, deep down in the heart of us forever.
