Jacob Alex Thomas
Ducharme

January 25, 1994 - February 7, 2025

Jacob Alex Thomas Ducharme was born on Tuesday, January 25, 1994 in Winnipeg, Manitoba. Jacob and his family lived there for a few years before moving to The Pas and then to Cormorant. He attended Cormorant Lake School, and later on attended Frontier Collegiate in Cranberry Portage.

Jacob enjoyed a simplistic, quiet life and enjoyed the solitude that provided. He loved gaming and spent many hours socializing while behind the controller. He was also a big fan of combat sports such as UFC, he even sparred on occasion with his brother Ryan.

Jacob loved to go on walks and having visits with family and friends he would run into. Spending time with family at bbq's, fishing trips, and at special occasions was very important to Jacob.

He had various jobs over the years such as landscaping and odd jobs, which he was doing when he moved to Winnipeg to better his life. Jacob was an amazing artist especially at doing character sketches.

Jacob loved all animals especially dogs, his dog Scooter was his "right hand pet" and followed him around everywhere.

Survived by his parents, Carol Turner and Gerald (Mavis) Ducharme, birth mom, Liz Keeper-Garson (Mike), grandma, Margaret Keeper, brothers; Warren Ducharme, Ryan Turner

Predeceased by grandparents; Art and Rosalie Turner, grandpa, Walter Keeper, sister, Candice Turner, uncles; Art Jr, Norman, Bradley and Daniel, aunties; Annette and Lorraine, cousins; Gavin, Brandi, Carla, Clinton, Dallas, Bradley, Baby Dun, Jayda and Braxton.
