

Reflections of Her Life

Juanita Copeland Moore was born on September 13, 1953, in Columbia, South Carolina. She is the eldest child of eight children born to the late Deacon Julius and Rose Lee Copeland. She departed this earthy life on Tuesday, April 7, 2026, at Lexington Medical Center in Lexington, South Carolina.

Juanita was educated in the public schools of Richland County and graduated from Lower Richland High School, Class of 1972. She was a loving member of The Temple of Yahshua under the leadership of her sister and brother-in-law Apostles Johnny and Debra Grant.

She was united in Holy Matrimony to Lawrence Douglas Moore Jr.; they had two sons, Lonnie Jacobs and the late Lawrence Douglas Moore III. She was employed at Rich's that later became Macys for over 20 years, where she retired. After she left Macy's, she began working at All Gods Children Daycare as the dietician, where she prepared delicious meals for the children, and the kids could not get enough of Ms. Juanita's cooking. She excelled in every job she worked. One of her many qualities was being an amazing cook. Every dish she made was made with love and care and you could tell in every bite! Also known for her love of shoes and fashion, Juanita was always on point. Her makeup and hair were never out of place, and with her infectious smile, she stayed picture ready. Her memory will always be cherished, and her love for her family and friends will be remembered forever. She was a devoted daughter, wife, mother, sister, auntie and friend, and she will be missed dearly.

She is preceded in death by her parents Deacon Julius and Rose Lee Copeland, her son Lawrence Douglas Moore III, her sister Vera Vanessa Copeland, and four sisters-in-law.

She leaves to cherish her memories and carry on her legacy to her husband Lawrence Douglas Moore Jr., her son Lonnie (Tasha) Jacobs, two granddaughters Ollieayanna Jacobs, Anaya Combee, and one grandson Ethan Johnson, one great grandchild Ciana Jru Cox, three sisters Debra Grant (Johnny) of Hopkins, SC, Telisa Tapp (Melvin), and Tamala Jackson (Daryl) both of Columbia, SC, three brothers Andrew Copeland of Arlington, TX, and Julius Copeland Jr. and Michael Copeland both of Hopkins, SC. One brother in-law Kevin Moore of Columbia, SC, two uncles, Edward Metze and Roger Metze both of Columbia, SC. Two aunts, Beverly Copeland and Winifred Maye and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and countless friends!

The Broken Chain

We little knew the day that
God was going to call your name.

In life, we loved you dearly,

In death, we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you.

But you didn't go alone.

For part of us went with you

The day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories.

Your love is still our guide,

And though we cannot see you

You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same,

but as God calls us one by one the chain will link again.

Expressions of Gratitude

The family of Mrs. Juanita Copeland Moore would like to acknowledge and thank each one of you for all the beautiful expressions of love, sympathy, and care that were demonstrated during our time of bereavement. We thank everyone that attended the home-going celebration and visited our homes. The many phone calls, texts, and expressions of your love do not go unnoticed, and it was greatly appreciated and heartfelt. We are deeply touched and we sincerely thank you and pray that God will continue to bless each one of you in a very special way.
