Tribute to My Husband

"God Saw You"

God saw you getting tired
When a cure was not to be
So, He wrapped His arms around you
And whispered "Come to Me."
You didn't deserve what you went through
So, He gave you rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
For He only takes the best
And when I saw you sleeping
So peaceful and free from pain
I could not wish you back
To suffer that again.

I Love you, Danny!
Your Wife, Geraldine

From Your Girls

What you mean to us
cannot be explained.
When it comes to Dads,
we put you in the Hall of Fame.
You gave us enough love
to last a lifetime.
You taught us how to love
by example.
From early childhood,
you've shown us what resilience,
kindness, and unconditional love truly is.
You would often tell us to "kill 'em with kindness" (and often we didn't want to hear that).
However, this has kept
us grounded.
We hope this letter makes you feel the pride
we feel in being your daughters.
You've always been our hero.
And no matter how life changes or how seasons come and go, just remember that we love you more than you could ever know.

Rest up Pops!
Love Your Three Girls
Theresa, LeKitha, & Danielle

From Your Grandkids

Grandpa, you were a pillar
in our lives,
A steady presence t hat never wavered.
Your wisdom, patience, and unconditional love shaped who we are today.
You taught us to embrace life's challenges with courage, to hold family first, and to always find joy in the small things.
You had a way of making ordinary extraordinary.
Grandpa, you lived with such integrity and never knew a person with a heart as generous as yours.
Whether it was your time, your love, or your wisdom, you gave all without hesitation.
Thank you for being the guiding light you were. Your legacy will continue to live on in our hearts, in the lessons you taught, and in the love you so freely gave. Grandpa, your spirit still lingers in every corner of our lives.

Love Always – Your Grands

Reflection of Life

Deacon Danny Lee Mack was born August 25, 1957, to M.C. Mack and Velma T. Mack. He was the youngest of eight children. Danny was preceded in death by his mother and father, two sisters, four brothers, and one granddaughter.

Deacon Danny Mack accepted his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ at a very young age and would often be heard shouting the words "Glory to the Lamb of God" throughout the sanctuary. He joined Taylor Hill Missionary Baptist Church as a child and remained there until his death. Danny served in various capacities such as: Deacon, choir member, prison ministry, Master Mason, youth department, scholarship fund, Sunday School Teacher, and within many other auxiliaries within the church. His family, church family, and God were everything to him and he didn't mind expressing those feelings.

Danny graduated from Pinola High School in Pinola, Mississippi, in 1975. He worked at Magnetek for a short while and later pursued a career in the insurance industry and never looked back. He worked as an insurance agent until his death. Danny was a man that rarely sat still. He loved to travel. He loved supporting his loved ones and absolutely loved his football! It did not matter where his grands and great grands were playing, it was guaranteed that he would be in the stands. He was their #1 fan.

Deacon Danny Mack leaves to cherish his memory: his wife of 24 years, Geraldine Mack; three beautiful daughters, Theresa, LeKitha, and Danielle Mack, all of Magee, Mississippi; three stepdaughters, Crystal Owens, Deanna Durr, and Ladinna Durr; two brothers, Donnie Ray Mack of Pinola, Mississippi and Junior Earl Mack of Hawaii; one goddaughter, LaSonya Lofton of Magee, Mississippi; and one special niece, who was like a daughter, Tomica Stowers of Jackson, Mississippi; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.
