

Sharon Kay Castleberry was born on November 11, 1941, in Benton, Illinois to Clint H Sr and Mabel (Boney) Castleberry. Her family relocated to Texas while she was a child and eventually settled in Lubbock, Texas where Sharon would graduate from Monterey High School. On August 19, 1961, at First Baptist Church of Lubbock, Sharon married Patrick Austin Tunnell. Upon finishing Texas Tech University in February of 1967, they relocated to Amarillo to begin their life together.

Sharon was deeply dedicated to the church. Partrick and Sharon joined St. Stephens Church in August of 1967. She would join the staff at the church in 1976 as the Church Administrator, a career that lasted over 30 years. Sharon loved working with the Missions organizations and helping put together many Missionary trips over the years. Outside of the church, Sharon took even greater pride in her family. She cherished every moment with them and made sure each one knew how much she loved them.

Sharon is preceded in death by her parents, Clint Sr and Mabel, her brothers, Clint Jr and Gary Lee, and her daughter, Kimberly Upton. Those left to cherish her memories are her husband, Patrick Tunnell, daughter, Connie Leigh Volk and husband Michael, son, Jason Monroe Tunnell; a legacy of eight grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews and cherished friends.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

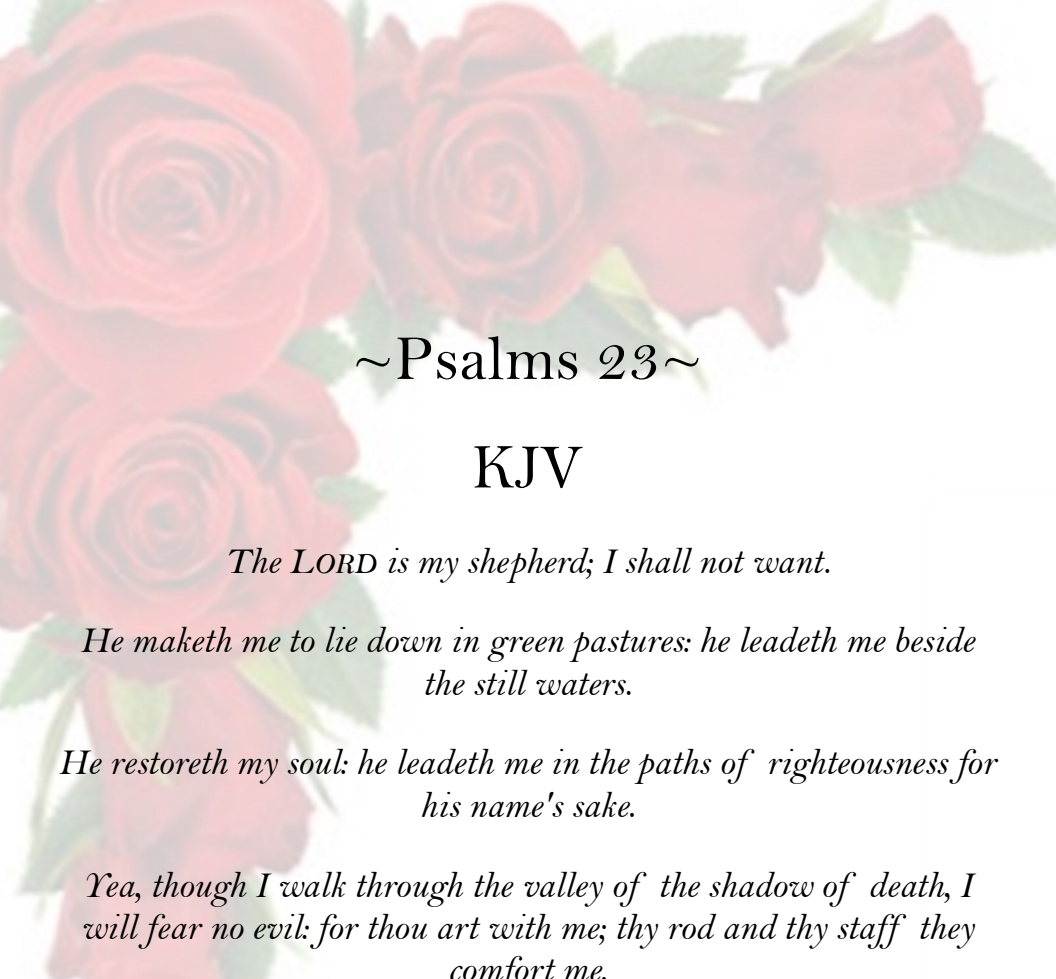

Sharon Kay Tunnell

November 11, 1941 ~ June 22, 2026

“For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.”

~Ephesians 2: 8-9~

~Psalms 23~

KJV

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

*Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.*

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.*
