

Jason E. Singleton was born in Branson, Missouri on May 2, 1972. He was adopted by Ann & Blaine Singleton on May 5, 1972. He grew up in West Plains, Missouri and lived on the family farm until 1998 when he married Regina Murphy. To this union 3 children were born. Two daughters, Paige and Brooklyn, and one son Jaxon.

Jason obtained his associates degree in teaching but worked in construction for several years off and on.

He loved a good dad joke and was always telling them to people or texting them to a family member. He loved to make everyone laugh. A couple of his favorites were:

► Why aren't Koala's bears? *Because they don't meet the KOALAfications.

► Did you hear the joke about the Butter? *I better not tell you, it might spread.

Today we celebrate a life that was taken from us too soon but won't too soon be forgotten.

He is survived by his 3 children, his wife and several cousins, aunts and uncles. He is preceded in death by his mother Ann Singleton, his father Blaine Singleton, his Paternal Grandmother Blanche Singleton, and his Paternal Grandfather Grover Singleton.

Pianist:

Robin Wilkerson

His Favorite Psalm

Psalms 139

Eulogies given by

Alan Bullock his longtime friend and brother in Christ

John English his pastor

Favorite Verse:

Isaiah 40:29

He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength

Want to hear a joke about construction?
*Never mind, I'm still working on it!
