

Acknowledgments

The family of LaRhonda Haithcock would like to express their heartfelt gratitude for the many acts of kindness, prayers, calls, visits, and words of comfort shown during this time of loss. Your love and support have brought strength and peace when it was needed most. Every gesture, whether great or small, has meant more than words can express, and we are truly thankful to have such caring family and friends surrounding us.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Reflections

LaRhonda Haithcock, born on March 16, 1972, peacefully passed away on March 17, 2026. She was the beloved daughter of the late Clarence Haithcock and Margaret Baggett.

She leaves to cherish her memory her devoted husband, Raul Herrera Rocha; her loving children, Billy Haithcock (Karla) and Emmanuel Haithcock; her sisters, Regina Naves, Sheila Jackson, Romona Haithcock, and one additional sister; and her brother, John Haithcock.

LaRhonda was a proud and loving grandmother to Destiney Haithcock, Kamden Haithcock, and Gracie Haithcock.

She is also survived by nine nephews and one niece, along with many other relatives and friends who will miss her dearly.

LaRhonda lived her life boldly and spoke her mind with honesty. She had a heart of gold and was always willing to help others. She found her greatest joy in her grandchildren and enjoyed simple moments like trips to the beach and spending time fishing.

Her passing leaves a deep void in the hearts of all who knew and loved her. She will be truly missed and forever remembered.

Remembered

Do not remember me with sorrow,
Do not remember me with tears,
Remember all the laughter shared
Throughout the many years.
Remember how I loved you,
And all the joy we knew,
Remember all the special times
That meant so much to you.
I am at peace, my soul is resting,
My pain and struggles through,
So when you think of me, please smile
As I will live in you.
Though I am gone from your sight,
My love will always stay,
Guiding you and holding you
Each and every day.
