Daryle “Morris” Caribou, at the age of 50 years old, passed away tragically on Monday, December 28, 2020, in Cold Lake, Manitoba. He was a quiet, kind and a loving person to know. He was a grandfather, father, brother, grandson, uncle, cousin, partner and friend.

Morris was born on Wednesday, April 22, 1970, in Pukatawagan, Manitoba to late Emile and Flora Caribou. Morris was the youngest of 12 siblings.

In his younger years, Morris was mostly raised in Burntwood Lake and Limestone Point Lake where he was taught how to hunt, trap, fish and live off the land by his parents and close family.

Morris later moved to Sherridon/Cold Lake, Manitoba with his parents and siblings Alphonse and Francis. This is where he gained close friendships with many in the community. He enjoyed playing floor hockey and being in the outdoors. To those close to him he would share laughs and sometimes get into mischief.

In his later years, Morris worked most of his life in the surrounding area of Sherridon/Cold Lake, Manitoba. Some of the work included firefighting, line cutting, commercial fishing and trapping. He became a father to seven beautiful children and helped raise two like his own. He also became a grandfather to three of his first born son’s children.

Morris is survived by his children Samson, Tracy, Tommy, Daryle, Roderick, Mikhail, Diane, Nadine and Daphne; grandchildren Dallas, Isadore, Logan.

Morris is also survived by his brothers and sisters Walter (Mary Anne), Dennis, Sam (Lana), Alphonse (Jeanette), Mary Francis, Ruby (Mike); also his partner Pearl Colomb and numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and friends, too many to mention.

Morris was predeceased by his parents Emile and Flora; grandparents Lydia, Alphonse, Anne, James; brothers Jimmy; sisters Ruby, Charlotte and Mary Jane.

Morris will be greatly missed but his life will be remembered and carried on through his family and friends who knew him best.
