~ Obituary ~

Our beloved Stanley was born on January 16, 1967, in Newton County, Georgia to Mary L. Robinson Hudgens and the late Willie Clifford Victor.

He received his education through the Newton County School System. A true lover of basketball, he spent countless hours on the court. He was also a skilled grill master, known for bringing people together through good food and great conversation. With a deep passion for history, he enjoyed reading and learning about the past in all its forms. In addition to his many talents, he was a gifted visual sketch artist, expressing himself beautifully through his artwork. Stanley was the family clown. He loved his family dearly. He was a loving father, grandfather, brother, uncle and will truly be missed.

On Sunday, July 27, 2025, our heavenly father called our beloved Stanley home. He leaves his precious memories and a legacy of love behind. His two children, Alaiyah Neal and Devin Robinson ; two grandchildren, Layanna Neal and Jasai Neal; his loving mother, Mary Robinson Hudgens ; sisters, Tania (Lucy), Tara, Tarella, Annette, Regina (Charlie) Smith, Cheryl and Pamela (Eddie) Wyatt; his brothers, Stacy (Tonya) Robinson, Spencer (Yolande) Robinson, Shannon Durden, Dexter Victor and Tyson; three god sisters, Beverly Cooksey, Janet Nelson and Meta Lackey and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, and other relatives and dear friends.
