Favorite Passages: Psalm 23 and The Lord's Prayer.

Mom,

Through the years you guided, counseled, and loved us.
You have always taken the time to pray over us.

You taught us to care for others and expect nothing in return. You taught us to play together, work, and love one another. We have strength and knowledge because of your prayers and faith in God. Mom, rest now--we love you!

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you prayed a sincere prayer, or came to pay a call:
Perhaps you sang a cheerful song, if so we heard it all.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friends could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Perhaps you prepared a tasty dish, or maybe furnished a car.
Perhaps you rendered a service unseen, near at hand or from afar.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, by word or deed or touch.
Whatever was the kindly part, we thank you all so very much!
Special thanks to Father Robert E. Chaney , Resurrection of Our Lord Catholic Church Family, Compassus Hospice and Palliative Care, and Adams Funeral Services.
