In Loving Memory of Patrick Willard Constant
 July 19, 1961—October 18, 2021

to

Patrick Willard Constant was born Wednesday, July 19, 1961 in The Pas, Manitoba. He was the youngest son of Pat and Emma Constant. He was a loving partner Brenda, a loving father to Jennifer, and a loving grandpa to his grandchildren Nolan and Kady.

Pat was a very loving person with an outgoing personality who was always smiling when meeting up with everyone. He liked his movies, recording music on his cassette tapes and exploring the outdoors. One of his accomplishments was his sobriety for 20 years, which we were all proud of.

Pat and Brenda were happily together for 20 years and loved their two fur babies; Baby Girl and Tara. He grew up on Riverside, loved blasting his rock music, and repairing his electronics. He was always seen cruising around with his brother, Eric, down riverside saying hi to all the kids.

Pat loved his only daughter Jennifer with all his heart. Jen, her husband Kasady, and kids would go out to visit him or he would drop in at her work to chat. He liked to make her laugh. Pat also loved and adored when his grandkids, Nolan and Kady, would visit him. He would show them the trails and explore the outdoors. He was always there for them when they needed him the most. He loved his grandchildren very dearly.

Pat's famous story to tell was when he wrestled a moose. It was on the road at the gate, and a moose approached him. The moose attacked him, and his life saviors were his dogs, Chico and Ivy, who were biting away at its ankles. He was able to get away and had a story of a lifetime. Sure enough, his brother Eric said there was lots of tracks on the ground and proved his story to be true.

Patrick passed away in the early morning, Monday, October 18, 2021, at his home on Opaskwayak Cree Nation with loving family by his side.

Patrick leaves to mourn his passing, his partner Brenda Mackintosh; daughter Jennifer Dionne (Kasady); grandchildren Nolan Dionne and Kady Dionne; God-daughter Stephanie Cook; God-son Marc Constant; brothers and sisters Flora Bignell (Allan), Eric Constant, Philip Constant (Georgina), George Constant (Natalie), Deb Devenny (Bill), Patsy Young (Wilf), Robert Constant, Val Cook (Mike), Rhonda Constant (Mike), Phyllis Campbell; sister-in-law Mary Jane Constant; adopted sister Karen Innes; aunties Evelyn Ballantyne and Anne Goodman; and cousins, nieces, nephews too numerous to mention.

Patrick was predeceased by his parents Pat and Emma Constant; step-mom Doreen Constant; grandparents Florence and Cornelius Bignell, Elijah and Flora (Beaver) Constant; brother Larry Constant; sisters and their spouses Rose and Bill Kadachuk, Jean and Samuel Peters, Evelyn, Dinah; sister-in-law Ethel Constant; great nieces Emma-Jane Young, Amelia Emma Chartier; and aunties, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews too numerous to mention.

Memories of the Heart

Moon and Pat were longtime friends and considered each other brothers. He was close to both Moon and his partner, Marlene, and all the Spence family. They enjoyed music and "general store" shopping, visiting, and walking around the rez.

One of Pat's stories to tell was that he was part of the build of the Kikiwak Inn. He would pass by and say, "One of those bricks are mine."

Even though he lived out in Watchi Bay, he would enjoy a long bike ride to town. He was also very proud of obtaining his driver's license at an older age and bought himself a car. Which he gave to his grandson Nolan for his birthday.

Pat and his brother Eric liked to go on adventures to the general store aka OCN zoo, drive around, or go on shopping trips to the mall. Although they sometimes teased with one another about taking too long at the mall or picking him up on time, they always enjoyed each other's company and loved each other unconditionally.

His partner Brenda worked at various jobs in Manitoba and Alberta before she came to The Pas. Brenda met Pat on the dancefloor. He kept asking her to dance, but Brenda didn't feel like it at the time. But he wore her down and she finally agreed. They were inseparable since. He must've been a good dancer!

As we know, Patrick was known by multiple nick names. For the nieces and nephews, they called him Uncle Paddy. But to the rest, he was known as P.M.B. An inside joke to those who knew him.

Patrick loved his daughter Jennifer Rose. He opened his whole heart to her, and they became closer every day. Most recently, they spoke on the phone and would always end the conversation with 'I love you'. A memory she will cherish forever.
