

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

*3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.*

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

*5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

While processing to the cemetery, please be sure to turn on your lights and hazards!

Chester Wayne Bryan

Chester Wayne Bryan, 67, of Florence, MO, passed away peacefully at his home on Monday, September 29, 2025. He was born on March 16, 1958, in Sedalia, MO, the son of Forrest Clifford Bryan and Pauline (Currier) Bryan, who preceded him in death.

On April 30, 2022, in Sedalia, MO, Chester was united in marriage to Kimberly I. Bishop, who survives of the home. Together, Chester and Kim were faithful members of Grace Fellowship Church in Sedalia, where they enjoyed worshiping and serving alongside their church family.

Chester was a graduate of Smithton High School. In 1975, he joined the IBEW Local 124 in Kansas City, MO, and remained a dedicated union member for 50 years. Over his career, he worked as a skilled commercial electrician throughout Missouri, Kansas, and Oklahoma.

A true outdoorsman, Chester found joy in hunting and fishing. His greatest passion, however, was building and restoring Chevrolet pickup trucks. He also loved going to auctions and antique shops, always searching for unique finds. Above all, Chester cherished his role as a husband, father, and grandfather. He was incredibly proud of his sons and grandchildren, and he shared a special bond with his faithful four-legged companion, Roscoe.

In addition to his wife, Chester is survived by three sons, Justin Bryan (Sara) of Sedalia, Coleman Bryan (Hallie) of Warrensburg, and Seth Bryan (Maxine) of Sedalia; three step-children, Jay Lutjen (Jessica) of Sedalia, Britney Brandcamp (Stephen) of Warsaw, and Dakota Miller (Jade) of Marshall; five siblings, Sharon Cantrell of Smithton, Judy Stevenson (Leroy) of Smithton, Dennis Bryan (Linda) of Smithton, Kathy Foffel (Ed) of Knob Noster, and Holly Johnston (Mike) of Warsaw; eleven grandchildren, Riley, Colby, Callyn, Linnyx, Emmett, Charlie, Kennedy, Reese, Emmi Lou, Callum, and Konner; along with many nieces, nephews, cousins, and extended family.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one brother, Cody Bryan; and two sisters, Crystal Tevis and Forrestine Bryan.
