

I am my father's daughter - As we've said time and time again, "Until we meet again."

5:35pm May 11, 2021 was your final time on this earth.

You were such a joker and a trickster. I'll miss our foot races, thumb wrestles, tic tac toe matches, and drives.

You gave me the best gift, a dad. I always thanked God and Nimama for bringing you in my life.

You stepped up and chose to help raise me as one of your own. I was and am always blessed to call you Nipapa. You took mom and I camping every winter and summer. We had so many great adventures. You taught me so much that I will carry and share for the rest of my life. You carried me when my clumsy self tripped over my flippers for feet, gave me tough love when needed, showed me how to laugh and joke around. Safe travels on your journey to see the loved ones who passed before you, Nipapa.

I am my fathers daughter and father I will miss you always. Kisakihetin Nipapa.

In Loving Memory of Joseph Walter Caribou
October 15, 1947—May 11, 2021

Walter Caribou at the age of 73 years old, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, May 11, 2021 at St. Paul's Personal Care Home, in The Pas, MB. He was cared and loved for by many. He was a dad, grandpa, brother, uncle, cousin, husband, partner and friend.

Walter was born on Wednesday, October 15, 1947 in The Pas, MB to Emile and Flora Caribou. Walter came from a big family and was the eldest of 12 siblings.

Walter lived a life full of adventure, loved to travel, and was always making the best memories with his friends and family, near and far. He loved to go camping, trapping, hunting and fishing at his parents trap line in Limestone. Walter was a hard worker and took on many jobs in all parts of Manitoba. In his later years he returned to Pukatawagan and was a school bus driver for several years. He also had a great love for his pet dogs.

Throughout his life he would always attend church every Sunday as his relationship with God was strong. He would always keep his friends and family in his prayers.

He was close to family and made many great friendships over the years of his life. He loved playing pool and his guitar. One of his accomplishments in life, that he was so proud of, was his sobriety of 30 plus years. Of course he is most proud of his children and numerous grandchildren that he loved dearly as best he can.

Walter is survived by his children Alphonse Bighetty, Wally Caribou, Flora Caribou, Norman Caribou, Riva Spence, Devon Colomb and Roslyne Ross.

Walter is also survived by his brothers and sisters Sam Caribou, Alphonse Caribou (Jeanette), Dennis Caribou, Francis Caribou, Mary Dumas, and Ruby Dumas (Michael). He is also survived by his long time partner Bernadette Ross; ex-wife Mary-Ann Bighetty-Caribou and along with numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends, too many to mention.

Walter was predeceased by his parents Emile and Flora Caribou; grandparents Lydia and Alphonse Dumas, Anne and James Caribou; siblings Jimmy Caribou, Morris Caribou, Mary Jane Colomb, Charlotte Caribou, and Ruby Caribou (baby).

Walter will be greatly missed but never forgotten. If we forgot to mention someone we are sorry as it was not intentional.
