

A Great Patriarch

A great patriarch is who he was, a pillar, a rock, a standup man when he walked into a room the audience he did command. Hey, Uncle Alvin is what most would say. Hey Baby, he'd reply with a smile on his face. A great patriarch that's what he was, a dynamic husband, an awesome son, the greatest big brother, of course, the best grandfather, and a great father compared to none! A great patriarch that's what he was exemplifying what a man should be walking upright head held high, strong in integrity, a strong worker, a leader indeed. Uncle Alvin was someone you inspired to be. A great patriarch is what he was the greatest example of a role model there could ever be. Always there with great wisdom, always there as good company. Junie, Tony, Danny, Allen to me y'all had the greatest dad that ever lived and we all were proud to call him uncle. Thank you for sharing him while he lived. A great patriarch is what he was and sadly it is what we all have lost to say that he'll be missed is an understatement and it is our broken hearts that will pay the cost. So, in everything, we give thanks to God for He has been good to us. Thank you for the life of our father, brother, uncle, grandfather, and friend. For us, it was not long enough, but to You, Lord his life belongs in the end.

John 14:1-6

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

Obituary

Alvin L. Walker Sr., 74, of Cincinnati, Ohio, passed away on Friday, December 6, 2024. He was born on January 10, 1950, to the late Riley and Lois Walker in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Alvin attended Western Hills High School and graduated from Courter Tech in the class of 1968. He was a well-known driver for Queen City Metro, where he worked for 27 years.

Affectionately known as “Big Al,” Alvin enjoyed being surrounded by family, reminiscing about old times, and creating memories with his great-grandchildren. He loved cooking large meals for his family and had a passion for baking. His favorite family activities included karaoke and playing the piano.

Alvin was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Frankie Walker; his parents, Riley and Lois Walker; and his siblings: Lawaunda (Walter) Lewis, Noralene Daniels, Katherine Walker, and Russell Walker.

He is survived by his children: Alvin (Nicole) Walker Jr., Anthony (Yolonda) Walker, Danielle Walker, and Allen Walker; his siblings: Lorraine Walker, Armie Walker, Chet Clark, and Tracey Clark; his brother-in-law, Ernest Daniels; 17 grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members, and friends.
