Life Reflections

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.”
2 Timothy 4:7

Ruth Ophelia Moses, affectionately known as “Teenie,” a beloved mother, grandmother, and pillar of the Mayesville community, gently closed her eyes and went home to be with the Lord on the morning of June 2, 2026. Ruth was born on January 16, 1933, in Mayesville, South Carolina to the late James McMillan and Delia Johnson-McMillan. She was married to the late Thomas Moses, Sr.

Faith, family, and community were the cornerstones of Ruth’s ninety-three years. She lived out her faith through devoted ministry, including pastoring Mayesville Pentecostal Mission Church and co-pastoring Prayer Mission of Mayesville, and through her greatest joy; raising twelve children and cherishing her many grandchildren.

A graduate of Mount Pleasant High School in Elliott, SC, Ruth worked much of her life as a domestic worker, serving the Tiller family of Mayesville. Her warmth followed her everywhere - most memorably into her kitchen, where legendary sweet potato pies and golden biscuits were love letters and comfort for the ones she loved. An avid gardener, she poured that same nurturing spirit into the earth around her beloved home of nearly fifty years, filling it with color and beauty that mirrored the grace within her.

In addition to her parents and husband, Ruth was preceded in death by her son, Ernest (late Catherine) McMillian; her grandchild Sharnay Moses, six brothers: James McMillian Jr., John McMillian, Thomas McMillian, Willie McMillan, Leroy McMillian and Johnny McMillian; and four sisters: Catherine Moore, Annie Williams, Janie Myers and Rosa Lee Jones.

She is survived by her brother, Henry (Elaine) McMillan; her eleven children: Thomasina Moses, Thomas (Velma) Moses, James Moses of Latta SC, Rosa Mae Wheeler, John Moses, Elizabeth Moses, Carolyn Williams, Henry Moses of San Diego, CA, Jackie (Sarah) Moses, Monique Moses, Willie (Tina) Moses of Charleston, SC; thirty grandchildren and a host of great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren, nieces, and nephews.

Ruth’s kindness and generous spirit, warm smile and hearty laugh touched the lives of many. She will be deeply missed by her family, friends, and all who knew her.

We do not say goodbye. We say, simply: “well done, thou good and faithful servant.”
