

Please Do Not Weep

Please do not weep
Just look at me as if I'm asleep
Remember my smile from the love you gave
No sorrow, no pain, no fear do I know
I love you, my dear loved ones
But away I must go
Remember the good times,
Please do that for me
And be glad my family and friends
Because from all the pain and the suffering of the world,
I have been set free
Remember me, as you pass me by
As I am now, so shall you be
So prepare yourself to follow me

Life Reflections

Elaine Lenzy was born June 19, 1928 in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. At an early age she moved to Cincinnati, Ohio where she was raised by the late James and Maggie David. She attended the public schools of Sands, Bloom, and Woodward High School.

Elaine was united in Holy Matrimony to James Lenzy who preceded her in death March 29, 1969. Elaine was a hard working person and always held a steady job. She retired from the Ford Motor Company in 1990 as a line engine inspector.

Elaine was the strong matriarch of her family, always willing to help and support her two daughters and their families. She will be greatly missed.

Elaine leaves to mourn and cherish her memory; two daughters, Katherine Higgins (James), Rita Williams, both of Cincinnati, Ohio; six grandchildren, Larry David, Paul Smith, Robert Smith, Melvin Williams, Tehla Williams, Elaine Higgins, and eight great grandchildren of Cincinnati, Ohio; one brother, Ralph E. Wilson of Cincinnati, Ohio, and sister, Sallie Cox of Cleveland, Ohio; and one cousin who was like a brother, Dr. Leroy Whitehead, and a host of other cousins and friends.
